Exploring the Intersection of Artificial Intelligence and Journalism Santosh Kumar Biswal, Anand J. Kulkarni, 2024-02-02
This book studies the role of Artificial Intelligence AI in journalism. It traces the origin, growth, and development of the media and communication industry in the globalized world and discusses the implications of technologies such as Augmented Reality, Virtual Reality, and Extended Reality, which have helped foster a communication revolution across the globe. The volume discusses technology-centric media theories in the context of AI and examines if AI has been a boon or bane for data journalism. It also looks at artificial intelligence in beat reporting and citizen journalism and analyses the social cultural implications of artificial intelligence-driven journalism and the ethical concerns arising from it. An important contribution, this book will be indispensable for students and researchers of media studies, communication studies, journalism, social media technology studies, and digital humanities. It will also be useful for media professionals.

Global Health and Nursing - E-Book

Barbara Stilwell, 2024-05-17 Nurses are critical in addressing the great health challenges we now face. For the first time, Global Health and Nursing provides an overview of global health issues specifically for nurses. Critical topics covered in this exciting new book include the social determinants of health, planetary health, globalisation, and migration. It highlights the importance of investment in the nursing profession, the role of gender, and how nurses can find a global voice to become influential leaders as we rebuild health systems post-pandemic. Written by Dr Barbara Stilwell, one of the UK's most influential nurses and a champion for health workers and strong health systems, the book is suitable for all those interested in global health, including postgraduate nurses, nurse educators, practising nurses, and nurses taking global health programmes. Written by eminent British nurse researcher and academic Dr Barbara Stilwell, with contributions from major players in global nursing. Covers a broad range of issues relevant to all those interested in global health from the nurse's viewpoint. Explores the most critical issues facing world health today, including planetary health, decolonising nursing, nurse migration, and nursing in emergencies. Focus on leadership and how to find a global voice. Real-life case studies drawn from around the world, learn from your peers. Research-based findings on the effects of COVID on the nursing workforce. Closely linked to the work of the International Council of Nurses.
