Gridiron Gourmet Maria J. Veri, Rita Liberti, 2019-09-02. On football weekends in the United States

thousands of fans gather in the parking lots outside of stadiums where they park their trucks, let down the gates and begin a pregame ritual of drinking and grilling. Tailgating, which began in the early 1900s as a quaint picnic lunch outside of the stadium, has evolved into a massive public social event with complex menus, extravagant creative fare and state-of-art grilling equipment. Unlike traditional notions of the home kitchen, the blacktop is a highly masculine culinary environment in which men and the food they cook are often the star attractions. Gridiron Gourmet examines tailgating as shown in television, film, advertising and cookbooks and takes a close look at the experiences of those tailgaters who are as serious about their brisket as they are about cheering on their favorite team, demonstrating how and why the gendered performances on the football field are often matched by the intensity of the masculine displays in front of grills, smokers and deep fryers.

Celebrating

the Super Bowl Linda K. Fuller, 2024-02-10. A de facto American national holiday and phenomenon, the Super Bowl claims a spot as one of the most significant sporting events in the world and the most widely celebrated feasted and feasting event of the year, with 14 billion at stake commercials costing 7 million for a 30-second spot, record-setting broadcast ratings and 113 million viewers. More avocados, 105 million pounds are consumed and more beer is drunk, 325 million gallons on the single day of Superbowl Sunday. But there is much more at play than partying at our annual sports extravaganza as this scholarly researched yet readable volume demonstrates. Here you will read a historical perspective that includes discussions of the meta event's economics, stakeholders, host cities, advertising, gambling and media, fandom, ratings, halftime entertainment, the roles of mythic spectacle and religion, football's sexist, militaristic language, gender issues like cheerleaders and sex trafficking, the Puppy Bowl, medical concerns like concussions and violence, tailgating and foodie ideas all along with tidbits about your favorite team's and player's Touchdown.
