Looking for the New Deal Elna C. Green, 2007 Rife with palpable misery and often pleading with desperate urgency the hundreds of letters assembled in Looking for the New Deal paint a bleak and accurate portrait of the female experience among Floridians during the Great Depression Searching for help at a time when desperation overwhelmed America women in Florida shared the same goal as their counterparts elsewhere in the country they wanted work In pursuit of a means to provide for their families these women doggedly often naively wrote letters asking for relief assistance from agencies charities and state and federal government officials In this volume Elna C Green gathers more than three hundred letters written by Floridians that reveal the immediacy and intensity of their plight The voices of women from all walks of life black and white rural and urban old and young historically poor and newly impoverished testify to the determination and ingenuity invoked in facing trying times
