The Narrative of Lieut. W. Howe, 2017-11-24 Excerpt from The Narrative of Lieut Gen Sir William Howe If the peculiarities of my situation be considered I shall not be thought presumptuous in desiring the indulgence of the committee during the trespass I must this day commit upon their patience The repugnance of his Majesty's ministers in this house at least to declare any opinion concerning the transactions of the American war during my command although possessed of all the necessary and only documents upon which a judgement could have been formed impelled me to move that my correspondence with the Secretary of State for the American department might be laid before you The most material parts of my conduct the reasons upon which I acted the plans which I suggested and executed appear in that correspondence and therefore to those who may have connected the whole in a regular series of dates and events the detail into which I propose to enter may seem unnecessary But I cannot flatter myself that the papers have been considered with such minute attention nor can I presume to suppose that all the circumstances of the American war have been invested with the partial view of clearing the conduct of the man who commanded the army And Sir it is with that partial view I now rise for I mean not to call in question the justice nor the policy of that war About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works
