Narrative Practice Continuing The Conversations:

Narrative Practice: Continuing the Conversations Michael White, Michael Kingsley White, 2011-04-04 This book is an inclusion of papers that were originally given as plenary addresses. The author's descriptions of his work with a number of people are also included in the book. In these descriptions we are treated not only to the details of his work but we see the exquisite care he took in his therapy relationships.

Maps of Narrative Practice Michael White, 2024-01-09 Michael White, one of the founders of narrative therapy is back with his first major publication since the seminal Narrative Means to Therapeutic Ends which Norton published in 1990. Maps of Narrative Practice provides brand new practical and accessible accounts of the major areas of narrative practice that White has developed and taught over the years so that readers may feel confident when utilizing this approach in their practices. The book covers each of the five main areas of narrative practice: re-authoring conversations, remembering conversations, scaffolding conversations, definitional ceremony, externalizing conversations, and rite of passage maps. To provide readers with an explanation of the practical implications for therapeutic growth of these conversations, the book is filled with transcripts and commentary, skills training exercises for the reader, and charts that outline the conversations in diagrammatic form. Readers both well versed in narrative therapy as well as those new to its concepts will find this fresh statement of purpose and practice essential to their clinical work.

Caring for Joy: Narrative, Theology, and Practice Mary Clark Moschella, 2016-09-07 In Caring for Joy: Narrative, Theology, and Practice Mary Clark Moschella offers a new account of the value of joy in caregiving vocations demonstrating how the work of caring for persons, communities, and the world need not be a dreary endeavor overwhelmed by crises or undermined by despair. Moschella presents glimpses of joy in action in the narratives of five notable figures: Heidi Neumark, Henri Nouwen, Gregory Boyle, Pauli Murray, and Paul Farmer, gleaning their wisdom for the construction of a theology of joy that embodies compassion, connection, justice, and freedom. Care must be deep enough to hold human suffering and spacious enough to take in the divine goodness, beauty, and love. This book expands the pastoral theological imagination and narrates joy full approaches to transformational care. This work is a scholarly, engaging, and compassionate call to reconsider the significance of joyful living and joyful lives in radical pastoral theology.

Heather Walton, University of Glasgow President of the International Academy of Practical Theology, July 2016. Based on biographies, interviews, and life stories, Mary Clark Moschella presents joy as a counter-cultural emotion, as a spiritual path, and as a fruit of the Spirit. In her research, joy and reason are not ultimately opposed. Jeanne Stevenson Moessner, Professor of Pastoral Care, Perkins School of Theology, Southern Methodist University, July 2016. This highly readable and compelling theology of joy will inspire you to explore how joy might energize your vocation, especially caregiving vocations that use narrative approaches to spiritual care and pastoral counseling. I plan on using this book as a textbook in my theodicy, grief, death, and dying, and vocational courses. Carrie Doebring, Professor of Pastoral Care and Counseling, Iliff School of Theology, Denver, August 2016. Mary Moschella has given us a rare text one that is theologically rich intellectually sophisticated drenched in pastoral wisdom and beautifully written She gives us a pastoral theology attuned to the realities of diversity and sensitive to the complex challenges facing those who lives constantly interface with suffering There is simply nothing else like this book in pastoral care Willie James Jennings
