J. Boone Bartholomees,2010 This edition of the U S Army War College Guide to National Security Policy and Strategy continues to reflect the structure and approach of the core national security strategy and policy curriculum at the War College The fourth edition is published in two volumes that correspond roughly to the Department of National Security and Strategy s core courses Theory of War and Strategy and National Security Policy and Strategy Like previous editions this one is largely an expansion of its predecessor rather than a major rewriting About a quarter of the chapters are new and several others have undergone significant rewrites or updates However approximately half of the book remains unchanged Although this is not primarily a textbook it does reflect both the method and manner we use to teach strategy formulation to America's future senior leaders The book is not a comprehensive or exhaustive treatment of either strategic theory or the policymaking process Both volumes are organized to proceed from the general to the specific Thus the first volume opens with general thoughts on the nature and theory of war and strategy proceeds to look at the complex aspect of power and concludes with specific theoretical issues Similarly the second volume begins by examining the policy strategy process moves to a look at the strategic environment and concludes with some specific issues This edition adds several short case studies that can be used to illustrate the primary material in the volume Study Guide and Solutions Manual for McMurry's Organic Chemistry, Fifth Edition Susan McMurry,2000 Provides answers and explanations to all in text and end of chapter exercises Also includes summaries of name reactions functional group synthesis and reactions lists of reagents and abbreviations and articles on topics ranging from infrared absorption frequencies to the Nobel Price winners in Chemistry This edition now includes all new artwork expanded in text problems summary quizzes approximately every three chapters more detailed explanations in solutions and chapter outlines Instructor's Manual G. Preliminary Assessment of Three NCO Leadership Preparation Training Systems Paul D. Hood,1967 Three alternative leadership training systems were studied as a preliminary to formal evaluation of what might be the most feasible method of meeting Army needs for identifying and training potential junior NCOs as early as possible in their Army careers Training objectives were defined for each system along with training materials and methods A second coordinated activity was directed toward developing assessment devices to support training or to evaluate training accomplished in each system Considerable information was obtained regarding the kinds of environmental conditions which are most conducive to successful leadership training factors which affect trainee leader morale and attitudes acceleration or compression of some technical instruction relation of selection variables to subsequent performance and the relative merits of three different methods of presenting leadership training in connection with the Advanced Individual Training AIT program Overall it was determined that presentation of formal leadership training in a separate course between Basic Combat Training and AIT followed by practical on the job leadership training in the AIT cycle showed the most value and promise as a leadership training system Author
