

Opening Statement

This is a regular open meeting of LifeRing Secular Recovery. LifeRing is a self-help support group for all people who want to get and stay clean and sober.

We feel that in order to remain in recovery, we have to make sobriety the top priority in our lives. By sobriety, we mean complete abstinence from alcohol and other addictive drugs.

Out of respect for people of all faiths and none, we conduct our meetings in a secular way, which means that, during this hour, we do not use prayer or talk about religion. We rely in our recovery on our own efforts and on the help of the group members and other friends.

Everything that we share at this meeting is completely confidential and stays in this room. If you are under the influence of alcohol or drugs now, we ask that you maintain silence at this meeting. You may speak with members afterward.

The meeting format is flexible. We generally begin by checking in and talking about the highlights and heartaches of our past week in recovery, and what we plan to do to stay clean and sober in the coming week.

We encourage cross-talk throughout the meeting. By cross-talk we mean questions and positive, supportive feedback. Positive experiences from your own recovery are welcome. Please allow enough time for everyone to participate by limiting your speaking time if necessary.

If this is your first time at this meeting of LifeRing -- Welcome. Please introduce yourself by your first name. If you would like, tell us how long you have been in recovery and then tell us about your past week and your coming week in recovery. If you would like to know more about the LifeRing approach, we have LifeRing books and handouts available here.

Thank you.

After twelve years, Beth Pollock is nervous about returning to the workforce full time. She was hired as an assistant professor of education, which required her to teach classes, advise students, and oversee the senior education majors. But after a while, a new president of the college, and then COVID-19, came. Changes. Covid stripped away any masks and exposed everyone for who they are at their core. This revealed the new president to be a champion of gaslighting.

manipulation and workplace bullying leading to the resignation of several staff members including Beth Bend to My Will details her experiences with this workplace abuse and provides suggestions for both victims and human resources departments on how to deal with such behavior It also delves into the different contexts outside of college and analyzes different workplace reports of abuse Hopefully her insight and experience will spark a national dialogue on how to deal with such behavior and what qualifies as abuse About the Author Beth A Pollock Ed D has been an educator for twenty five years with a doctorate degree in Curriculum Studies Theory She is currently an Independent Scholar with her research focusing on the intersections of curriculum constructs of power and gaslighting In addition to theoretical explorations in power She also engaged in pragmatic applications via Martial Arts where she is a member of the United Tae Kwon Do Federation She enjoys yoga hiking and traveling with her husband and two beautiful daughters along with escaping into the realms of science fiction fantasy

Adopting the Tune of Appearance: An Psychological Symphony within Opening Statement Examples For Administrative Assistant

In a world taken by displays and the ceaseless chatter of instant interaction, the melodic elegance and mental symphony developed by the written term usually diminish into the background, eclipsed by the relentless sound and disturbances that permeate our lives. Nevertheless, set within the pages of Opening Statement Examples For Administrative Assistant a charming literary treasure full of organic thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by a masterful composer of language, this charming masterpiece conducts visitors on a mental trip, skillfully unraveling the hidden songs and profound impact resonating within each cautiously constructed phrase. Within the depths with this moving analysis, we will discover the book is key harmonies, analyze its enthralling writing model, and surrender ourselves to the profound resonance that echoes in the depths of readers souls.
