Conducting an Institutional Diversity Audit in Higher Education

Edna Chun, Alvin Evans, 2023-07-03 Implementing systematic diversity transformation requires embracing all aspects of diversity gender sexual orientation disability gender identification and other salient characteristics of difference as well as race and ethnicity This book lays out a framework for a systematic and sustained diversity process that first recognizes that too many diversity initiatives have generated more statements of intent than actual change and that audits conducted by outside bodies frequently fail to achieve buy in or long term impact and are costly endeavors The authors framework identifies nine dimensions that need to be addressed to achieve a comprehensive audit that leads to action describes the underlying research based practices and offers guidance on ensuring that all relevant voices are heard The process is designed to be implemented by and within the institution saving the considerable expense of outside consulting and design In addition it offers flexibility in the timing and sequence of implementation and provides the means for each institution to interrogate its unique circumstances context and practices This book provides a concrete process for data gathering analysis and evaluation of institution wide diversity efforts through a progressive modular approach to diversity transformation It gives campuses the ability to audit evaluate and analyze diversity progress on the nine dimensions and prioritize areas of focus Its systematic research based approach supports continuous improvement and proactively addresses accreditation criteria The book is designed as a collaborative tool that will enable every constituency on campus from boards of trustees presidents provosts executive officers diversity officers deans department heads and chairs administrators HR officers faculty senates and staff councils diversity taskforces multicultural centers faculty and researchers to identify processes and relationships that need to change and implement practices that value and support the diversity on their campuses and undertake the transformation necessary for institutional success in a changing world The questions and guidelines set out in this book will enable all stakeholders to Audit the progress on each diversity dimension Identify gaps between research based practices and current approaches Tie diversity benchmarks to accreditation frameworks and strategic plans Chart the organization s overall progress in the development of comprehensive diversity initiatives leading toward Inclusive Excellence Prioritize institutional diversity initiatives based upon a comparison of the current state and the desired state availability of resources and the importance of each dimension in relation to institutional diversity goals Create a long term strategy for diversity transformation that provides a concrete research based method for auditing progress and future planning The

New Age of Naval Power in the Indo-Pacific Catherine L. Grant,Alessio Patalano,James A. Russell,2023 Competition at sea is back as a central issue of international security Today the US led maritime order and the freedom to use the ocean as a vast maneuver space to access different markets and theaters stands contested Nowhere is the urgency to address state on state competition at sea more strongly felt than in the Indo Pacific region where freedom of navigation stands challenged by regional states continuous investments in naval power and the renewed political will to use it The international groups of distinguished contributors to this volume survey and analyze the implications of the return of naval power as a critical consideration of international relations in the Indo Pacific region Catherine L Grant Alessio Patalano and James A Russell develop an original framework in which five factors of influence help explain how and why naval power matters in this pivotal part of the world for cooperation coercion and competition The chapters also provide historical background outline key issues and conduct a close examination of key subregions This book will be read by both academics and policy makers alike seeking to navigate the complexity of maritime security and regional affairs Always an Athlete Jenne

Blackburn,2023-11-17 Always an Athlete is a comprehensive study of the ways in which athletes climb what author Jenn Blackburn terms The Mountain the journey from youth sports through high school and college sports to finally professional and Olympic sports This steady climb and success over a long period of time however sets up athletes for an inevitable fall off The Cliff upon their retirement from competition To help athletes in transition Blackburn identifies Three Pillars of the Cliff Mental Health Physical Health and Athlete Identity and describes the issues that athletes have in each of these areas after they retire After training sacrificing and devoting years even decades to a sport athletes at every level will struggle within these three pillars Blackburn believes that athletes must evolve from a competition mindset to a wellness mindset and match their new lifestyles in order to soften this transition into the real world Fortunately the Inner Athlete honed over many years of training and competition can show up as a Parachute as athletics recede and other priorities rise to the forefront of their new life Ultimately Blackburn proposes cycling as a foundation and universal tool to help retired athletes resolve a lingering loss of identity mental health issues such as anxiety and depression and complications due to unchanged diet and exercise habits when they transition out of a performance purposed existence She advocates for fun community bike rides adjacent to sporting events and franchises to bring sports communities together around this critical yet overlooked topic for all athletes
