Creating Visions for University-School Partnerships JoAnne Ferrara, Janice L. Nath, Irma N. Guadarrama, 2014-10-24 This book continues the series tradition of exploring current thinking in professional development school research. It features diverse perspectives from PreK-16 educators addressing solutions to complex educational problems. The book covers clinically rich practices, stakeholder perspectives, content area instruction, and family engagement.

Assessing Language and Literacy with Bilingual Students Lori Helman, Anne C. Ittner, Kristen L. McMaster, 2019-10-22 From expert authors, this book guides educators to conduct assessments that inform daily instruction and identify the assets that emergent bilinguals bring to the classroom. Effective practices are reviewed for screening, assessment, and progress monitoring in the areas of oral language, beginning reading skills, vocabulary, and comprehension in the content areas and writing. The book also addresses how to establish schoolwide systems of support that incorporate family and community engagement. Packed with practical ideas and vignettes, the book focuses on grades K-6 but also will be useful to middle and high school teachers. Appendices include reproducible forms that can be downloaded and printed in a convenient 8 1/2 x 11 size.

New Ways to Engage Parents Patricia Edwards, Catherine Compton-Lilly, 2016-05-06 Just as populations change, ideas about how to encourage and work with parents also need to evolve. This practical resource by bestselling author Patricia Edwards provides school leaders and classroom teachers with new and creative ways in which to welcome, encourage, and involve parents. Enacting these types of practices requires a special kind of commitment from teachers and school leaders, which often coincides with a particular kind of mindset about families and one's responsibility to engage them. Educators often develop this mindset as they depend on their understanding of families, literacy, language, culture, race, class, and themselves. Edwards pulls these understandings together and presents them in a straightforward, concise, and easy-to-use guide that is perfect for professional learning communities and teacher preparation courses. New Ways to Engage Parents is essential reading for all educators who care deeply about engaging a wide range of parents in today's schools. The book features a stark look at the changing community demographics and what that means for teachers and administrators, strategies for communicating with parents, examples of how to bring parents together for meaningful activities, the importance of understanding parental constraints and the need to meet them halfway, and approaches for overcoming school ghosts as well as negative histories and perceptions in the community.

Beyond Gifted Education Scott J. Peters, Michael S. Matthews, Matthew T. McBee, D. Betsy McCoach, 2021-09-03 Seeking a more comprehensive vision for gifted education, this book offers a modern vision of programs and services for gifted and talented students. Beyond Gifted Education: Designing and Implementing Advanced Academic Programs provides the first comprehensive look at designing and implementing advanced academic student programs. Written by four leading experts in the field, Beyond Gifted Education reviews the current range of traditional gifted education practices and policies. Then the book offers the concerned gifted program coordinator or school administrator a more expansive approach to educating gifted learners The authors lead readers through the process of identifying needs responding with programming and then finding students who are well suited for and would benefit from advanced academic programming Detailed examples walk the reader through real world scenarios and programs common to the gifted coordinator on topics such as cluster grouping acceleration and increasing diversity Throughout the book connections are made to Common Core State Standards Response to Intervention and a wealth of outside research in order to support ideas
