OBJECTIVE
This section should present a quick summary of your experience, training, and highlight relevant skills for the medical role you're seeking. Many hiring managers and recruiters on average only spend a few seconds to review your CV the first time. Your primary aim at this point is to determine whether your application should be considered further. Think of this objective section as a place for a short, concise paragraph that tells them that you're the right fit for the position.

WORK EXPERIENCE

• Collaborated with medical staff leaders to coordinate daily hospital activities

Health Services Manager, SAC San Francisco Department of Health
San Francisco, CA | 2012-2015 - 2015-2018
• Add your accomplishments that make the most sense and best highlight your skills
• Write a short paragraph for every job opening because it makes your resume look specific and gets your application noticed
• Double-check the dates, job titles, and names of employers and previous employers

Medical Manager, SAC San Francisco Department of Health
San Francisco, CA | 2010-2012 - 2012-2015
• Carefully read the job description and tailor your resume to highlight how you are the ideal candidate based on matching skills and experience
• Highlighting clinical capabilities is a must for every medical professional's resume and should include what sets you apart from others, such as your license

EDUCATION
Bachelor of Science | University of Illinois School of Medicine | San Francisco, CA | 2008 - 2010
Pre-medical Studies | Sonoma College | San Francisco, CA | 2005 - 2008
