Messages Of Life From Death Row:

Messages of Life from Death Row Pierre Pradervand, 2010-01-01      Life and Death Matters Robert

Baldwin, 2008-06-01 Dr Robert Baldwin would be the first to tell you that he used to be an average white Southern male a family man with conservative ideals and a growing medical practice he was living out his life without too much introspection In 1997 however Baldwin was diagnosed with the auto immune disease myasthenia gravis In his compelling new memoir Life and Death Matters Baldwin discusses his health scare and his subsequent search for truth in both the Christian church and society at large Baldwin goes on to tackle one of the most precarious moral issues of our time the death penalty with statistical fact and thoughtful religious sympathy While volunteering as a prison minister Baldwin immerses himself in this issue proving himself to be a most thoughtful individual with an eye for social injustice and an ear for those in most need of counsel

The Message of Humanity Ian W. Payne, 2025-02-20 Who do humans think they are A cacophony of answers in the face of global challenges like climate change artificial intelligence racism nationalism terrorism feminism abortion gene therapy gender constructivism shows we do not agree To a deeply divided despondent world the Bible speaks today about the human condition and destiny by pointing us to Jesus Christ the true human the image of God Ian Payne's conviction is that the most important answer to the question of humanity is God He expounds a comprehensive selection of Old and New Testament passages and examines a range of issues in being human today The book is structured in three parts following the biblical narrative Part 1 Created in the image of God Part 2 Image of God renewed in Christ Part 3 Issues in being human This biblical theology shows that hope and meaning for humans are found in remembering and trusting God's gift of life and goal of redemption and restoration With an integrated study guide this book is perfect for personal and group study and preachers application of the passages covered

The Right to Life and Conflicting Interests Elizabeth Wicks, 2010 The right to life is a core human right which has not yet received the detailed legal analysis that it requires This book provides detailed critical analysis of the controversial human right to life and in particular assesses the weight of conflicting interests which could and or should serve to override the right This contemporary study of the right to life focuses on the legal as well as ethical issues raised by the value of life in modern day society It seeks to analyse the development meaning and value of the fundamental human right to life in the context of its conflicts with other competing interests The book begins with an overview of the right to life in which the concept of life itself is first analysed before both the right and its legal protection and enforcement are subjected to historical philosophical and comparative analysis The remainder of the book identifies and assesses the merits of various competing interests These comprise armed conflict prevention of crime rights of others autonomy quality of life and finite resources The right to life is unusual in having potential application to so many of today's ethically controversial questions This new work investigates specific topics of current political legal and ethical concern such as the right to life during international conflicts the role of lethal force in law enforcement the death penalty the right to life of a foetus in the context of legalised abortion and the significance of quality of life and autonomy issues in respect of euthanasia and assisted suicide
