This unique resource offers nursing students and health professionals an extraordinary perspective on a range of topics related to ageing, including assisting and caring for the older person, the experience of ageing within a culturally diverse society, sexuality in the later years, maintaining independence at home, and positive experiences of ageing. Available as a print or eBook, this valuable resource builds empathy and understanding and provides examples of innovative approaches to care with a focus on reflection, inquiry, and action. The teaching and learning strategies assist in developing skills, attitudes, and mindfulness around ageing with a strong focus on a person-centred and lived approach. A unique multilayered structure also promotes engagement with learners across diverse educational levels, ranging from certificate qualifications through to the undergraduate and postgraduate student. Most importantly, Stories in Ageing provides a much-needed consumer voice for the older person, their families, and their carers. Including 10 chapters, each presenting a variety of stories from consumers, carers, and healthcare professionals around a range of topics related to ageing. With 19 video stories embedded within the eBook, presenting personal accounts from a range of lived experiences. Reflection, inquiry, and action provide the framework for the teaching and learning strategies for each story, aimed at certificate, undergraduate, and postgraduate levels. Weblinks, references, and readings are included for further reading, and research. Transcripts of all interviews are included in the back of the book. An eBook included in all print purchases.

Aged Care Nursing Susan Carmody, Sue Forster, 2003. With increased life expectancy, the aged population has grown markedly throughout the world, but there is a shortage of experienced nurses with expertise in the holistic care of the elderly. This book is written to inspire and empower such nurses. Care of the aged has a long and noble history within the nursing profession Respect for the dignity of the elderly and a commitment to their well being have inspired generations of nurses But it is only in more recent times that aged care nursing has really come of age with the provision of sound evidence based nursing practice The traditional ethical approach to aged care nursing has thus become combined with sound scientific knowledge in a modern holistic model of care Aged Care Nursing A Guide to Practice is written by clinicians for clinicians Each chapter describes contemporary nursing practice in a specific area of aged care The inclusion of evidence based and outcome based practices throughout the book ensures that all readers be they novices or experts will have a reliable and beneficial reference to guide their practice The chapter authors are from several countries and the content of each chapter is presented generically to ensure international applicability Each author is a recognised expert in his or her subject area and all present their topics with a focus that is practical rather than academic
