Dear Sister Nancy

I am writing this letter as a request for reference from Ms. Natalie Swan for the position of a registered Sr.Nurse at your esteemed hospital. Natalie worked under me for a period of eight years rising through the ranks and holding the position of Sr.Nurse- Women and Childcare, before she left the hospital.

Natalie has several merits that will add to the hospitals existing reputation. She is a skilled nurse, is consistent in her performance, is enthusiastic, efficient and responsible and in general cares for others. She had distinguished herself for providing safe and hygienic nursing to all our patients and has only three incidents reported against her in her eight year tenure. She has moreover always managed to maintain a professional relationship with all her colleagues and has a spic and span attendance record, having won rewards in two years for her attendance.

If her contribution in her last job can be considered as evidence, then I am sure that she will outshine herself at St.Loise given the opportunity she will find there that was absent here.

Their story addresses a fundamental question about nursing that has yet to be answered is nursing a craft or a profession. It also addresses the colliding visions of nursing factions that for more than a century have disagreed on the inherent traits and formal preparation a nurse has needed. The women of St. Luke's were engaged in the most practical of all occupations open to women a rare one in which their strength experience and skill were prized above all else. They firmly believed that the key to success in nursing was apprenticeship training. Apprenticeship not schooling was the cornerstone on which all else rested. This study unites the opposing visions of those who led nursing toward professional status and those who saw it as a craft. Physicality strength of will an abiding emphasis on practicality and a hierarchy based on a deep pride in craft skills have been essential elements of nursing. Nursing can look to its complex history to develop an integrated model of nursing one drawing on both academic training and the immediate realities involved in handling the sick. BOOK JACKET Title Summary field provided by Blackwell North America Inc All Rights Reserved The 2006 Credentialing and Privileging Desk Reference Kathy Matzka, 2006 Nursing & Health Care, 1993 Guide to Nursing Management Ann Marriner-Tomey, 1984 Fast Facts for the Clinical Nursing Instructor, Third Edition Eden Zabat Kan, Susan Stabler-Haas, 2017-09-28 Replete with new information that helps nurses to become first rate clinical instructors.
