Streufert, 2010 The first of its kind this book is a systematic presentation of Lutheran feminist womanist and mujerista theologies systematic in that it addresses classical loci of systematic theology contemporary in that it is resoundingly constructive and relevant for the contemporary church and feminist in that the contributors write from a feminist perspective although they reflect a variety of positions within feminist discourse. The contributors to this multi-authored work share a common commitment to Lutheran theology as a continual process of reform. Luther is a partner in the conversation because of his theological insights and commitment to faithful criticism which the writers seek to continue not because his voice settles a debate. The book focuses on central themes that Luther addressed and that are representative of Lutheranism today including justification by grace through faith and Luther's theology of the cross. From diverse contexts these Lutheran theologians like Luther seek reformation by giving voice to new perspectives in theology that continue to transform the church and the world. Along with Mary J. Streufert, contributors include Krista E. Hughes, Kathryn A. Kleinhans, Kristen E. Kvam, L. DeAne Lagerquist, Mary E. Lowe, Lois Malcolm, Anna Mercedes, Cynthia Moe Lobeda, Cheryl M. Peterson, Mary Joy Philip, Caryn D. Riswold, Deanna A. Thompson, Marit Trelstad, Alicia Vargas, and Beverly Wallace. A remarkable addition to the rich history of Lutheran theology. Not only have these theologians opened doors to fresh new worlds of Lutheran thought, they've done so in a way that honors the past by extending it forward. I can't wait to use Transformative Lutheran Theologies in class. I've been waiting twenty years for a text like this. Imagine teaching Luther's thought and placing it by side with these cutting edge essays. Luther would no doubt be proud, maybe even a bit envious. Serene Jones, President and Roosevelt Professor of Systematic Theology, Union Theological Seminary, New York.

Liberation Theologies in the United States. Stacey M. Floyd-Thomas, Anthony B. Pinn, 2010-03-01. Liberation Theologies in the United States reveals how the critical use of religion can be utilized to challenge and combat oppression in America. In the nascent United States, religion often functioned as a justifier of oppression. Yet while religious discourse buttressed such oppressive activities as slavery and the destruction of native populations, oppressed communities have also made use of religion to critique and challenge this abuse. As Liberation Theologies in the United States demonstrates, this critical use of religion has often taken the form of liberation theologies which use primarily Christian principles to address questions of social justice including racism, poverty, and other types of oppression. Stacey M. Floyd-Thomas and Anthony B. Pinn have brought together a stellar group of liberation theology scholars to provide a synthetic introduction to the historical development, context, theory, and goals of a range of U.S. born liberation theologies: Black Theology, Anthony B. Pinn; Womanist Theology, Stacey M. Floyd-Thomas; Latina Theology, Nancy Pineda Madrid; Hispanic/Latino Theology, Benjamín Valentín; Asian American Theology, Andrew Sung Park; Asian American Feminist Theology, Grace Ji Sun Kim; Native Feminist Theology, Andrea Smith; Native American Theology, George Tink; Tinker Gay and Lesbian Theology, Robert E. Shore; Goss Feminist Theology, Mary McClintock Fulkerson. An extraordinary resource for understanding the vitality of liberation theologies and their relation to social transformation in the changing U.S. context. Written in an accessible and engaged way, this powerful and informative text will inspire beginners and scholars alike. I highly recommend it.
