Dr. Derek Guyton BA, ED.M., M.Div., D.D., D. Min., 2021-12-17 Is this Sin or Sickness? Let's say your loved one in the time of Covid 19 refuses to wear a mask and/or do social distancing. Then the vaccine comes along and they refuse to take it. They justify it and in your eyes they are in denial, making excuses or just plain ignorant. Most of all this person lives with you. Imagine what home life looks like. How do you do social distancing? Do you wear a mask in the house all day? This person is in danger of being a Host for a deadly disease. It makes for a dysfunctional household where there used to be peace, laughter and joy. Marriages have been strained to the point there has been separations and divorce. Now replace this Host with one who has mental health challenges. Considering the Host's conviction not to be compliant to health experts' warnings and legislative mandates. Are the family and friends put in the position of judging the person with sin and/or sickness? In both cases the Host of a potentially deadly disease and the Host of a mental disease leaves their families. Read the Book Hint Hint. As the front book cover suggests Try but do not get too Attached. Why Work? Called to Make a Difference Howard W Olsen, Dr. Nancy D Olsen, 2006 Why Work Called to Make a Difference challenges every common assumption about a person's role in the workplace. From corporate America to government offices to entrepreneurial start-ups, a new move is sweeping the country. Each chapter is thought-provoking and worthy of discussion, guiding everyday workers as to their purpose in work and how they can make a difference in their sphere of influence. As you read the book you will be transformed as you become an agent of transformation in your workplace. This book is valuable for an individual reader and a small group. The content of the book
