Minor White, the Eye that Shapes Peter C. Bunnell, Joseph B. Rauch, 1989      Minor White Peter C. Bunnell, 1990

Minor White, 1984      Imogen Cunningham Paul Martineau, 2020-09-29 Thoroughly researched and beautifully produced this catalogue complements the first comprehensive retrospective in the United States of Imogen Cunningham's work in over thirty five years. Celebrated American artist Imogen Cunningham (1883-1976) enjoyed a long career as a photographer, creating a large and diverse body of work that underscored her unique vision, versatility and commitment to the medium. An early feminist and inspiration to future generations, Cunningham intensely engaged with Pictorialism and Modernism genres of portraiture, landscape, the nude, still life and street photography, and themes such as flora, dancers and music, hands and the elderly. Organized chronologically, this volume explores the full range of the artist's life and career. It contains nearly two hundred color images of Cunningham's elegant, poignant and groundbreaking photographs, both renowned and lesser known, including several that have not been published previously. Essays by Paul Martineau and Susan Ehrens draw from extensive primary source material such as letters, family albums and other intimate materials to enrich readers' understanding of Cunningham's motivations and work.      Men without Maps John Ibson, 2019-10-22 In Men without Maps, John Ibson uncovers the experiences of men after World War II who had same-sex desires but few affirmative models of how to build identities and relationships. Though heterosexual men had plenty of cultural maps provided by nearly every engine of social and popular culture, gay men mostly lacked such guides in the years before parades, organizations and publications for queer persons. Surveying the years from shortly before the war up to the gay rights movement of the late 1960s and early 70s, Ibson considers male couples who balanced domestic contentment with exterior repression, as well as single men whose solitary lives illuminate unexplored aspects of the queer experience. Men without Maps shows how, in spite of the obstacles they faced, midcentury gay men found ways to assemble their lives and senses of self at a time of limited acceptance.

Spirit Into Matter Julian Cox, Edmund Teske, 2004 Edmund Teske (1911-1996) was one of the alchemists of twentieth century American photography. Over a sixty year period, he created a diverse body of work that explored the expressive and emotional potentials of the medium. His drive to experiment with sophisticated techniques such as solarization and composite printing liberated a younger generation of American photographers at the same time his subject matter, sometimes abstract, often homoerotic and always lyrical and poetic, opened up new areas for photographers to explore. Spirit into Matter is published to coincide with the first major retrospective of Teske's work to be held at the Getty Museum from June 15 to September 19, 2004. Julian Cox provides an introduction and extensive biocritical essay on Teske that traces his long and varied career from Chicago in the 1930s to Los Angeles where the photographer took up residence in 1943. Cox investigates Teske's early associations with such influential figures as Frank Lloyd Wright and Paul Strand, and his later associations with iconic figures including filmmaker Kenneth Anger and musicians Ramblin' Jack Elliott and The Doors. The first major study of this fascinating and influential artist Spirit into Matter will be a dynamic source of information for students of photography collectors and all those with an interest in the life and culture of Southern California where Teske worked for more than fifty years     Photography, History & Science Gerald H. Robinson,2006     New York Magazine ,1989-05-22 New York magazine was born in 1968 after a run as an insert of the New York Herald Tribune and quickly made a place for itself as the trusted resource for readers across the country With award winning writing and photography covering everything from politics and food to theater and fashion the magazine s consistent mission has been to reflect back to its audience the energy and excitement of the city itself while celebrating New York as both a place and an idea
