Misreading the African Landscape James Fairhead,Melissa Leach,1999 Misreading the African Landscape James Fairhead,Melissa Leach,1996-10-17 An intriguing 1996 study showing how Africans enrich their land while scientists believe they damage it Environment and Identity Politics in Colonial Africa Emmanuel Mbah,2016-12-08 Economic political and ethnic favoritism are common themes in the historiography of colonial Africa Land ownership and control and the abilities of the respective landscapes to sustain Africa s growing population have created recurrent identity crises throughout Africa The chapters discuss the recurrent environmental issues the problems of contested ownership of land autochthonism as well as the blending of different cultures in a restricted area Also highlighted is a neglected aspect of the history of Fulani migrations in West Africa the colonial extension of the Fulani into the Southern Cameroons The Routledge Companion to Landscape Studies Peter Howard,Ian Thompson,Emma Waterton,Mick Atha,2013-02-15 Landscape is a vital synergistic concept which opens up ways of thinking about many of the problems which beset our contemporary world such as climate change social alienation environmental degradation loss of biodiversity and destruction of heritage As a concept landscape does not respect disciplinary boundaries Indeed many academic disciplines have found the concept so important it has been used as a qualifier that delineates whole sub disciplines landscape ecology landscape planning landscape archaeology and so forth In other cases landscape studies progress under a broader banner such as heritage studies or cultural geography Yet it does not always mean the same thing in all of these contexts The Routledge Companion to Landscape Studies offers the first comprehensive attempt to explore research directions into the many uses and meanings of landscape The Companion contains thirty nine original contributions from leading scholars within the field which have been divided into four parts Experiencing Landscape Landscape Culture and Heritage Landscape Society and Justice and Design and Planning for Landscape Topics covered range from phenomenological approaches to landscape to the consideration of landscape as a repository of human culture from ideas of identity and belonging to issues of power and hegemony and from discussions of participatory planning and design to the call for new imaginaries in a time of global and environmental crisis Each contribution explores the future development of different conceptual and theoretical approaches as well as recent empirical contributions to knowledge and understanding Collectively they encourage dialogue across disciplinary barriers and reflection upon the implications of research findings for local national and international policy in relation to landscape This Companion provides up to date critical reviews of state of the art perspectives across this multifaceted field embracing disciplines such as anthropology archaeology cultural studies geography landscape planning landscape architecture countryside management forestry heritage studies ecology and fine art It serves as an invaluable point of reference for scholars researchers and graduate students alike engaging in the field of landscape studies Social History & African Environments William Beinart, JoAnn McGregor, 2003 The explosion of interest in African environmental history has stimulated research and writing on a wide range of issues facing many African nations This collection represents some of the finest studies to date The general topics include African environmental ideas and practices colonial science the state and African responses and settlers and Africans culture and nature The contributors are Emmanuel Kreike Karen Middleton Innocent Pikirayi Terence Ranger JoAnn McGregor Helen Tilley Grace Garswell John McCracken Ingrid Yngstrom David Bunn Sandra Swart Robert J Gordon and Jane Carruthers African History, Environmental History, and Race Relations William Beinart, 1999 In his lecture Beinart observes that to those who established the Rhodes Chair of Race Relations and to subsequent electors race relations has meant the impact of European civilisations on non European peoples and territories in Africa Challenges for Anthropology in the 'African Renaissance' Association for Anthropology in Southern Africa. Conference, 2002 The publication of this collection of papers is significant for anthropology in Southern Africa and indeed the continent as a whole Given this context I endeavoured to obtain empirical data in the condition of anthropology in the region Africa Today , 2007 Global Development and Remote African Villages Steven A. Wolfgram, 2006 This study explores the relationships among tropical biodiversity conservation economic development and local cultures within the context of two provinces in the Central African nation of Cameroon It examines the attitudes toward environmental conservation and economic development of three groups rural Africans urban Africans and urban Westerners that directly impact Cameroon s environmental and development efforts African Studies Association Annual Meeting. [Program] African Studies Association, The African Studies Companion Hans M. Zell, 2006 This is an freely accessible version that has not been updated since July 2009 So some links will not work The International Journal of African Historical Studies , 2008 African American Review , 1999 As the official publication of the Division on Black American Literature and Culture of the Modern Language Association of America African American review promotes an exchange among writers and scholars in the arts humanities and social sciences who hold diverse perspectives of African American literature and culture Displacement Risks in Africa Itaru Ohta, Gebre Yintiso, 2005 As the plight of refugees around the world looms large as one of the central problems facing the international political community at the beginning of the 21st century the situations facing displaced persons in Africa are both acute manifestations of this global trend and unique in their particularities As the powerful nations of the world are mobilized to tackle domestic conflicts and their ensuing refugee problems in the Balkans the Middle East Southeast Asia and elsewhere African societies have typically been abandoned by the international community to resolving their own conflicts through their own means The authors of this volume examine both causes and effects of displacement in terms of both local and global politics environmental risks socio economic costs and policy and identity issues Combined these papers provide a powerful if not comprehensive overview of the variety and complexity of circumstances concerning displaced persons Canadian Journal of African Studies ,2008 African-American Exploration in West Africa James L. Sims,George L. Seymour,Benjamin J. K. Anderson,2003-11-13 In the 1860s as America waged civil war several thousand African Americans sought greater freedom by emigrating to the fledgling nation of Liberia While some argued that the new black republic represented disposal rather than emancipation a few intrepid men set out to explore their African home African American Exploration in West Africa collects the travel diaries of James L Sims George L Seymour and Benjamin J K Anderson who explored the territory that is now Liberia and Guinea between 1858 and 1874 These remarkable diaries reveal the wealth and beauty of Africa in striking descriptions of its geography people flora and fauna The dangers of the journeys surface too Seymour was attacked and later died of his wounds and his companion Levin Ash was captured and sold into slavery again Challenging the notion that there were no black explorers in Africa these diaries provide unique perspectives on 19th century Liberian life and life in the interior of the continent before it was radically changed by European colonialism The Study of Africa: Disciplinary and Interdisciplinary encounters Paul Tiyambe Zeleza,2006 This is the first of a two volume work which takes stock of the study of Africa in the twenty first century its status research agenda and approaches and place It is divided into two parts the first on the academic disciplines and African Studies the second on interdisciplinary studies Vernacular Architecture Newsletter ,1998
