Missions Amidst Pagodas:

Missions Amidst Pagodas Peter Thein Nyunt,2016 For almost 200 years Protestant missionaries have endeavoured to communicate the gospel to Burmese Buddhists in Myanmar However Christianity among this people group is still regarded as a potted plant with former Buddhists being separated from both their community and culture In this publication Peter Thein Nyunt a former Buddhist monk examines past and current approaches of the Protestant church among Burmese Buddhists Based on his findings the author develops a contextual missiological strategy with a relevant christological message and ecclesiological structure

Missions in Southeast Asia Kiem-Kiok Kwa, Samuel Ka-Chieng Law, 2022-09-26 As the boundaries between cultures and religions blur in an increasingly globalized world the church finds itself in need of new approaches to understanding and embracing otherness both inside and outside of its established communities Southeast Asia has long been one of the world's most diverse regions with over a hundred ethnicities represented and members of every major religion living as neighbors In this rich and complex environment the church has an equally rich and complex history at times flourishing at times floundering but inexorably taking root In this collection of essays contributors from throughout the region reflect on the history and future of Christianity in Southeast Asia providing an overview of missions in the region and exploring how local churches are defining a uniquely Southeast Asian approach to interreligious engagement Combining missiological research with contextual theology this volume offers profound insight into the challenges accompanying missions in a multireligious environment From ethnic and religious conflict resolution to navigating hybrid identities this collection of essays makes an excellent contribution to global conversations surrounding the future of missions in a globalized world

Reading James Missiologically Abeneazer G. Urga, Jessica A. Udall, Edward L. Smither, 2025-02-18 What can James teach us about mission While books on a New Testament theology of mission abound most of them focus only on certain tried and true books and passages while often ignoring the contribution of the General Epistles In Reading Hebrews Missiologically and Reading 1 Peter Missiologically we began to address this gap in missiological scholarship and we seek to continue in the same vein in this work on the book of James Reading James Missiologically explores the missionary dimensions of the Epistle of James through three parts the missionary motive is the reason behind missionary efforts the why the missionary message reveals what missionaries communicate the what and the missionary methods outline strategies for mission the how The global contributors examine James's profound call to action among the poor and inspire believers toward holistic engagement with the world as doers of the word not hearers only Jas 1:22 ESV Ethnic Diversity and Reconciliation Arend van Dorp, 2022-10-31 Forces of division conflict and fear threaten to separate us from the neighbor who does not look act or pray like us However followers of Christ are charged with embodying a unity that celebrates difference rather than fleeing from it Ethnic Diversity and Reconciliation explores the implications of the church's radical call to inclusive community in the context of Myanmar's long history of ethnic conflict Dr Arend van Dorp outlines the theological foundations for understanding the church's mandate as a diverse and unified missional body while also engaging the very real challenges posed to this mandate by the cultural, religious, and historical realities faced by Christians in Myanmar. He demonstrates that while the challenges are vast, so is the potential for transformation and reconciliation when the church takes up its mantle and bears faithful witness to God's love in a fractured world. The Asianization of Christianity Jonathan D. James, 2024-11-05 Christianity has long been associated with the West, often creating a disjunction affecting the understanding of the essence of the gospel. The Asianization of Christianity is a clarion call by Asian Christian leaders for the gospel to be indigenized by encouraging practitioners to seriously engage with both the Bible and the cultures of Asia. The book demonstrates that both the theology and the presentation of the gospel need to be framed according to the mindset of the respective Asian cultures so that the message of the Bible can be understood and accepted. Case studies on evangelism, church and training models from several Asian nations are explored. Core issues such as culture, communication, and contextualization underpin the practical cases to give depth and clarity for the effective communication of the gospel.
