INTRODUCTION

Many people will design topiary to be something practical exclusively for the garden, to be a way of the formal garden. However, it has always had a role in the garden, among many people and it is equally becoming a practice that is both and available to all.

As an art form, topiary has a universal appeal, partly because there are so many different styles. Whether you create a small, ornamental or traditional, your garden is yours. There is a beauty of topiary that is not meant to be seen. The garden might add a touch of beauty and grace to the garden, but it is not the only way to go with the form and style. Topiary is a way to create a garden that is both beautiful and functional. It is a way to create a garden that is both beautiful and functional.
