World-Regional Social Policy and Global Governance Bob Deacon, Maria Cristina Macovei, Luk Van Langenhove, Nicola Yeates, 2009-12-04 This volume explores the case for and the prospects of the development of world regional social policies as integral elements of a pluralistic equitable and effective system of global governance. Focusing on transnational regionalism this book examines the trajectory and crossing over of the three strands of scholarly analysis within the past decade which have given rise to this volume the perceived negative impact of neo liberal globalisation upon national social policy the need for but the difficulty of securing reforms in the institutions of global social governance and the increasing salience of the world regional level of governance in handling cross border issues. The authors develop an intellectual and research agenda that will also inform the political development of an international programme concerned with the social policy dimensions of regional governance. Combining the perspectives and collective expertise of a team of international scholars and activists the book features Theoretical and policy cases for a focus on regionalism and social policy. A mapping and analysis of social policy dimensions of regional integration processes and formations in four continents. An assessment of the regional dimensions of global agencies in particular of the UN ILO WHO UNESCO UNDP including the approach to regional social policy of the UN Regional Economic Commissions and Development Banks. An articulation of a multi levelled conceptualisation of global social governance within which regional associations of countries plays a significant part. The book will be of interest to students and scholars of social policy development studies international relations and political science especially those focused on the public policy dimensions of globalisation regionalisation and international development.

Regional Integration and Migration in Africa Vusi Gumede, Samuel Ojo Oloruntoba, Serges Djouyou Kamga, 2020-06-02 This comparative book debates migration and regional integration in the two regional economic blocs namely the Southern African Development Community SADC and the Economic Community of West African States ECOWAS.

The book takes a historical and nuanced citizenship approach to integration by analysing regional integration from the perspective of non state actors and how they negotiate various structures and institutions in their pursuit for life and livelihood in a contemporary context marked by mobility and economic fragmentation.

Linguistic Diversity and European Democracy Anne Lise Kjær, Silvia Adamo, 2016-05-06 What role does linguistic diversity play in European democratic and legal processes Is it an obstacle to deliberative democracy and a hindrance to legal certainty or a cultural and economic asset and a prerequisite for the free movement of citizens This book examines the tensions and contradictions of European language laws and policy from a multi disciplinary perspective. With contributions from leading researchers in EU law and legal theory political science sociology sociolinguistic and cognitive linguistics it combines mutually exclusive and competing perspectives of linguistic diversity. The work will be a valuable resource for academics and researchers in the areas of European law legal theory and linguistics.
