Ferda,2024-09-12 In this pioneering study of Scripture and reception history Tucker S Ferda shows that the hope for Jesus s second coming originated in his own message about the coming of the kingdom after a time of distress Most historical Jesus scholars take for granted that Jesus s second coming was invented by his zealous early followers In Jesus and His Promised Second Coming Tucker S Ferda challenges this critical consensus Using innovative methodology Ferda works backward through reception history to Paul and the Gospels to argue that the hope for the second coming originated in Jesus s own grappling with the prospect of death and his conviction that the kingdom was near he expected a return that would coincide with the final judgment and the end of the age within the space of a generation Ferda also makes a major contribution to the reception history of the Bible shedding light on how Christians distinguished their faith from

Judaism by deriding Jewish messianism as earthly minded and militaristic In the early modern period critics found an expedient way to distance Jesus from this caricature of Jewish messianism they pinned the expectation for the second coming on Jesus s early followers A new appreciation for the diversity of Judaism and messianism in the Second Temple period makes possible a fresh reconstruction of Jesus Bold and historically astute Jesus and His Promised Second Coming breathes new life into a long stagnant conversation It also offers readers fresh insight into the history of Jewish Christian relations Students and scholars of the New Testament will need to read and engage with Ferda s provocative argument
