Missing Mummy A Book About Bereavement:

Missing Mummy Rebecca Cobb, 2014-12-04 Written and illustrated by the talented and award winning author illustrator Rebecca Cobb this extraordinary book deals with the loss of a parent from a child's point of view. Perfectly pitched text and evocative artwork explore the many emotions a bereaved child may experience from anger to guilt and from sadness to bewilderment. And importantly the book also focuses on the positive the recognition that the child is still part of a family and that his memories of his mother are to be treasured. Beautifully illustrated with moments of wonderful warmth and the gentlest humour Missing Mummy is a touching honest and helpful book that approaches a difficult subject with great integrity. Missing Mommy Rebecca Cobb, 2013-04-02 Daddy comforts and reassures a very young boy after Mommy dies

Missing Mommy Rebecca Cobb, 2013 Daddy comforts and reassures a very young boy after Mommy dies Children's Book Anton A. Bucher, Gerhard Büttner, Elisabeth E. Schwarz, 2018-01-01 Can children theologize without substantial requirements? Initially the movement of child theology accentuated children's original theological creativity. But in the last years several authors point out that children need theological food in order to originally theologize. One of the most appropriate medium are children's books. This volume presents the lectures of the international symposium Children's books Nurture for children's theology. Proven experts demonstrate empirically studied strategies in order to stimulate children's theological reasoning be it about God, Jesus as the savior, death, the soul, Christmas and many other theological topics more. This reader presents the state of the art in theologizing with children stimulated by children's books. Supporting Inclusive Practice and Ensuring Opportunity is Equal for All Gianna Knowles, 2017-07-06 This third edition of Supporting Inclusive Practice builds on the successful format of the previous two editions both in content and structure. It explores many aspects of inclusive practice relevant to those who work with children in schools and other educational settings aiming to provide the most up to date theoretical knowledge and understanding in the field and illustrating the theory with examples of good practice in the areas explored. Many of the topics that have appeared in the previous editions including supporting children for whom English is a second language, children on the autistic spectrum and children with neurodiversity conditions also appear in this edition. The revised content of this third edition also covers recent and relevant changes in national policy and legislation particularly for example around changes in equality and disability, same sex parenting and transgender children and parenting policy and legislation. It explores the impact on aspects of inclusive practice legislation such as the Equality Act 2010, Marriage (Same Sex Couples) Act 2013 and the Children and Families Act 2014. It also explores in detail the revised 2014 SEN Code of Practice and the introduction of the pupil premium in 2011 which provides support for the education of children from low income families or who may be children who are fostered or in care. Throughout the book is informed by the solution focused social model of special educational needs and disability and reflects current national policy that sees inclusive practice as fundamental to ensure equality of educational opportunity is achieved for all children. Coping with
