A Proverb a Day Keeps the Devil Away Philip Ayers, 2008-10 A Proverb a Day Keeps the Devil Away applies the principles of God found in the Book of Proverbs to daily living Illustrations are used to trigger the memories of its readers to past and present experiences in life hopefully causing the lesson of each devotion to profoundly impact the reader These illustrations stem from relationships home work play decisions reactions thoughts injustice and justice Some are humorous and some very serious Each one demonstrates the theme of that verse The Book of Proverbs is as timely as time itself Times have changed but people have not They still face the hard issues of life the same fears and hurts the same temptations and sin the same struggle with what is right and wrong and the same questions about what role God really plays in their life This devotional study aids its readers in getting a grip on these challenges Philip Ayers was born in Roanoke Virginia on March 2nd 1948 He is the second born of a family of five Very early in his life his family moved to Salem Virginia where he resided until he joined the United States Marine Corps at the age of seventeen He served in the Viet Nam conflict He was wounded three times and was awarded the Navy Commendation Metal with Combat V for heroic action in the face of the enemy Philip played quarterback for the Marine Corps national football team the Quantico Marines He was honorably discharged at the rank of sergeant Philip was saved on March 30th 1980 Jesus Christ called him to ministry in 1981 He is the pastor of a local church in Roanoke Virginia He brings a large pool of experience and Bible knowledge to his readers The First and

Second Letters to Timothy Luke Timothy Johnson, 2008 The letters of Paul to Timothy one of his favorite delegates often make for difficult reading in today's world They contain much that make modern readers uncomfortable and much that is controversial including pronouncements on the place of women in the Church and on homosexuality as well as polemics against the so called false teachers They have also been of a source of questions within the scholarly community where the prevailing opinion since the nineteenth century is that someone else wrote the letters and signed Paul's name in order to give them greater authority Using the best of modern and ancient scholarship Luke Timothy Johnson provides clear accessible commentary that will help lay readers navigate the letters and better understand their place within the context Paul's teachings Johnson's conclusion that they were indeed written by Paul himself ensures that this volume like the other Anchor Bible Commentaries will attract the attention of theologians and other scholars Rabbi Talks with Jesus Jacob

Neusner, 2000 Imagine yourself transported two thousand years back in time to Galilee at the moment of Jesus' Sermon on the Mount After hearing it would you abandon your religious beliefs and ideology to follow him or would you hold on to your own beliefs and walk away In A Rabbi Talks with Jesus Jacob Neusner considers just such a spiritual journey What Your

Child Needs to Know about God Ron Rhodes, 1997 This handbook helps you create an exciting time of sharing God's love and provision with your child Short lessons focus on fundamental truths and provide interactive examples and stories for equipping your child with a Godly foundation The captain on the bridge: addresses in outline, illustrating gospel
