Empowering the Great Energy Transition Scott Valentine, Benjamin K. Sovacool, Marilyn Brown, 2019-12-17 At a time when climate change deniers hold the reins of power in the United States and international greenhouse gas negotiations continue at a slow crawl what options are available to cities companies and consumers around the world who seek a cleaner future Scott Victor Valentine Marilyn A Brown and Benjamin K Sovacool explore developments and strategies that will help fast track the transition to renewable energy They provide an expert analysis of the achievable steps that citizens organizational leaders and policy makers can take to put their commitments to sustainability into practice Empowering the Great Energy Transition examines trends that suggest a transition away from carbon intensive energy sources is inevitable there are too many forces for change at work to stop a shift to clean energy Yet under the status quo change will be too slow to avert the worst consequences of climate change Humanity is on a path to incur avoidable social environmental and economic costs Valentine Brown and Sovacool argue that new policies and business models are needed to surmount the hurdles separating the current consumption model from a sustainable energy future Empowering the Great Energy

Transition shows that with well placed efforts we can set humanity on a course that supports entrepreneurs and communities in mitigating the environmental harm caused by technologies whose time has come and gone
