background information in each chapter provides teachers with a synopsis of the scientific concept involved in the activity for that story. The story starters present a framework for inquiry which eliminates the free wheeling uncontrolled and unstructured view some teachers have of inquiry. These are either original stories or familiar children's stories that ask learners to investigate a possible scientific explanation for a problem or scenario. Learners then communicate their findings in an oral, written, pictorial or technological form back to a lead character from the story. Extension activities provide an opportunity for learners to compare their answers with what scientists already know about the world and also motivate them to frame new questions.

Grades 3-6 International Encyclopedia of Human Geography, 2019-11-29 International Encyclopedia of Human Geography Second Edition Fourteen Volume Set embraces diversity by design and captures the ways in which humans share places and view differences based on gender, race, nationality, location and other factors. In other words, the things that make people and places different. Questions of, for example, politics, economics, race relations and migration are introduced and discussed through a geographical lens. This updated edition will assist readers in their research by providing factual information, historical perspectives, theoretical approaches, reviews of literature and provocative topical discussions that will stimulate creative thinking. Presents the most up to date and comprehensive coverage on the topic of human geography. Contains extensive scope and depth of coverage. Emphasizes how geographers interact with, understand and contribute to problem solving in the contemporary world. Places an emphasis on how geography is relevant in a social and interdisciplinary context.

The Science Teacher, 2006 Internet Without Fear Elizabeth Rhodes Offutt, Charles R. Offutt, 1996. This book provides guidelines on how to use the Internet, discusses the educational benefits of the Internet and includes several activities in seven subject areas for grades K-6. The book is divided into two parts: Entering a New World and Integrating Internet Resources Throughout the Curriculum. The first part provides a glossary of Internet terms, explains the Internet, discusses equipment and connectivity needs and describes three of the leading commercial online services: America Online, CompuServe and Prodigy. The second section provides integrated Internet activities for reading, language arts, math, science, social studies, health, nutrition and physical fitness, and music, art and dance. Each entry lists suggested grade levels, activity title, Internet address, usually a Uniform Resource Locator to a World Wide Web site, or instructions for a telnet, a brief description of the site and activity procedures. Also included in Part 2 are Gopher sites, Internet groups, mailing lists and other organizations and resources of interest to educators.
