No Rising Tide Theology Economics And The Future:

No Rising Tide Joerg Rieger, 2011 Economy and Modern Christian Thought Devin Singh, 2022-03-28 Economy and Modern Christian Thought by Devin Singh presents key features of the engagement of Christian theology ethics and related disciplines with the market and economic concerns It surveys ways in which the dialogue has been approached and invites new models and frameworks for the conversation It contends that economy and Christian thought have long been interconnected and recounts aspects of this relationship and why it matters for how one might engage the economy ethically and theologically Finally it highlights a number of sites of emerging research that are in need of development in light of pressing social political economic and conceptual issues raised by modern life including money debt racial capital social reproduction corporations and cryptocurrency Prophetic Rage Johnny Bernard Hill, 2013-12-19 In this book Johnny Bernard Hill argues that prophetic rage or righteous anger is a necessary response to our present culture of imperialism and nihilism The most powerful way to resist meaninglessness he says is refusing to accept the realities of structural injustice such as poverty escalating militarism genocide and housing discrimination Hill s Prophetic Rage is interdisciplinary integrating art music and literature with theology It is constructive passionate and provocative Hill weaves through a myriad of creative and prophetic voices of protest from Jesus to W E B DuBois Martin Luther King Jr Malcolm X and President Barack Obama as well as multiple approaches including liberation theology and black religion to reflect theologically on the nature of liberation justice and hope on contemporary culture Theology in the Capitalocene Joerg Rieger, 2022-08-30 In times of rising pressures and catastrophes people yearn for alternatives So does the planet Protests are often a start but rebellion is not revolution nor does it always lead to transformation In this incisive and compelling new book Joerg Rieger takes a new look at the things that cause unease and discomfort in our time leading to the growing destruction and death of people and the planet Only when these causes are understood he argues can real alternatives be developed And yet understanding is only a start Solidarity and the willingness to work at the seemingly impossible intersections of everything the triad of gender race and class yes but more beyond must mark the work of theology Without solidarities that match the complexities of our world the best we can hope for is inclusion in the dominant system but hardly the systemic change and liberation we so desperately need T&T Clark Handbook of Christian Theology and Climate Change Hilda P. Koster, Ernst M. Conradie, 2019-12-12 The T these essays are critically engaged by respondents situated in other geographic regions minority communities non Christian traditions or non theological disciplines Structured in seven main parts the handbook explores 1 the need for collaboration with disciplines outside of Christian theology to address climate change 2 the need to find common moral ground for such collaboration 3 the difficulties posed by collaborating with other Christian traditions from within 4 the questions that emerge from such collaboration for understanding the story of God s work and 5 God s identity and character 6 the implications of such collaboration for ecclesial praxis and 7 concluding reflections examining whether this volume does justice to issues of race gender class other animals religious diversity geographical divides and carbon mitigation This rich ecumenical cross cultural conversation provides a comprehensive and in depth engagement with the theological and moral challenges raised by anthropogenic climate change Liberating People, Planet, and Religion Joerg Rieger, Terra Rowe, 2024-05-29 There is growing consensus that life on the planet is in peril if climate change continues at its current pace At stake is not only the future of many species but of humanity itself As an increasing number of ecological economists have emphasized these problems will only be adequately addressed by re examining economic systems from an ecological perspective fundamentally calling into question assumptions of unlimited growth and the maximization of shareholder profit foundational to neoliberal capitalism Religion and ecology scholars have also increasingly emphasized the ways climate change challenges assumed divides between nature and culture religion and labor economy and ecology and calls for critical and constructive engagement with the religion economy and ecology nexus Often though religious engagements with economy and ecology have placed emphasis on individual morality action and agency at the level of consumption patterns or have suggested mere modifications within existing economic paradigms Contributors to this volume call into question the adequacy of this approach in light of the urgency of climate change which is always ever entwined with ongoing patterns of exploitation oppression and colonialism in current economic systems Rather than tweaking a system of exploitation for instance by emphasizing individual consumption or care for human and non human victims these authors articulate important opportunities for religious engagement activism resistance and solidarity around issues of production and labor Recalling that Marx linked agencies and labor of people as well as the other than human world these authors aim to articulate a sense in which liberation of people and the planet are intertwined and can be accomplished only through collaboration for their common good The basic intuition driving this volume is that while Christianity has by and large become the handmaiden of exploitative capitalism and empire it might also reclaim latent theologies and religious practices that call into question the fundamental valuation of labor without recognition or rest of extractive exploitation and a winner take all praxis In the process Christianity might reclaim and reinvest in tenuous historical materializations of transformed ecological and economic relationships while economics might be re informed by a valuation of the shared oikos as well as a just accounting of and remuneration for labor Together they might serve the aim of the flourishing of all people and the planet Journal of the Society of Christian Ethics ,2009 Constructing Constructive Theology Jason A. Wyman Jr. ,2017-07-15 To date constructive theology hasn t been viewed or conceptualized as a movement or trend in theology on its own as a whole Questions arise as to what constructive theology is where it came from why it considers itself constructive and why constructive is something different from the ways in which theology has been done in the past This book traces the overall historical arc of constructive theology from proto movement through the present Inkings of constructive theology emerged well before it began to take any formalized shape At the same time an important shift occurred when a group of theologians decided to create the Workgroup on Constructive Theology Further even as the workgroup continues to work collectively producing textbooks statements and methodologies concerning theology many theologians who are not part of the workgroup or may not even know it exists have adopted the moniker of constructive theologian The book also considers the term constructive itself offering possible reasons and historical contexts that led to this distinction being made in contrast to systematic theology and its subcategories Constructive theology speaks to a very specific historically situated emergence in the academy generally and in theology s attempts to engage those shifts specifically Trauma-Informed Christian Ethics Darryl W. Stephens,2025-12-11 This book encourages a grounded approach to Christian ethics as a way to recognise and analyse trauma in individuals and social groups In doing so Stephens examines Christian ethics from Wesleyan feminist liberationist and trauma studies The high tide of prophecy: Hegel, Marx, and the aftermath Karl Raimund Popper,1957 Unity ,1893 Commonweal ,1970 Nature Sir Norman Lockyer,1901 Anglican Theological Review ,1945 An Old Testament bibliography for 1914 to 1917 inclusive by H C Ackerman v 1 p 214 237 314 332 Time & Tide Helen A. Archdale,Margaret Haig Thomas Mackworth (Viscountess Rhondda),1944 Year-book of Australia ,1891 Resurgence ,2008 The Truth Seeker ,1915 Religion Index One ,2001 Theology in the Capitalocene Joerg Rieger,2022 Joerg Rieger takes a new look at the things that cause the growing destruction and death of people and the planet And yet understanding is only a start Solidarity and the willingness to work at the intersections the triad of gender race class and more must mark the work of theology
