TV Guide, 2001 Richard Matheson on Screen Matthew R. Bradley, 2010-10-04 Though innumerable biographies have been written about novelists playwrights and poets screenwriters are rarely granted this distinction even ones as prolific and successful as Richard Matheson Beginning with The Incredible Shrinking Man in 1957 Matheson has occupied a unique position in writing for television and cinema for more than fifty years This biography documents his rise to prominence his literary influences and the role he played in the horror and science fiction renaissance The narrative examines each of Matheson's works in chronological order with an index indicating where each can be found from his early work in the 1950s through I Am Legend in 2007

Reading Programs for Young Adults Martha Seif

Simpson, 2015-11-16 School and public libraries often provide programs and activities for children in preschool through the sixth grade but there is little available to young adults For them libraries become a place for work the place to research an assignment or find a book for a report but the thought of the library as a place for enjoyment is lost So how do librarians recapture the interest of teenagers This just might be the answer Here you will find theme based units such as Cartoon Cavalcade Log On at the Library Go in Style Cruising the Mall Space Shots Teens on TV and 44 others that are designed for young adults Each includes a display idea suggestions for local sponsorship of prizes a program game to encourage participation 10 theme related activities curriculum tie in activities sample questions for use in trivia games or scavenger hunts ideas for activity sheets a bibliography of related works and a list of theme related films The units are highly flexible allowing any public or school library to adapt them to their particular needs
