The Homoerotics of Orientalism Joseph A. Boone, 2014-03-18 The place of the Middle East in European heterosexual fantasy is well documented in the works of Edward Said and others yet few have considered the male Anglo-European and later American writers artists travelers and thinkers compelled to represent what to their eyes seemed to be an abundance of erotic relations between men in the Islamic world Whether feared or desired the mere possibility of sexual contact with or between men in the Middle East has covertly underwritten much of the appeal and practice of the enterprise of Orientalism frequently repeating yet just as often upending its assumed meanings Traces of this undertow abound in European and Middle Eastern fiction diaries travel literature erotica ethnography painting photography film and digital media Joseph Allen Boone explores these vast representations linking European art to Middle Eastern sources largely unfamiliar to Western audiences and in some cases reproduced in this volume for the first time Louis Comfort Tiffany and Laurelton Hall Alice Cooney Frelinghuysen, Elizabeth Hutchinson, 2006 Laurelton Hall Louis Comfort Tiffany's American 1848 1933 extraordinary country estate in Oyster Bay New York completed in 1905 was the epitome of Tiffany's achievement and in many ways defined this multifaceted artist Tiffany designed every aspect of the project inside and out creating a total aesthetic environment This publication accompanies an exhibition that reveals Tiffany's most personal art bringing into focus this remarkable artist who lavished as much care and creativity on the design and furnishing of his home and gardens as he did on all the wide ranging media in which he worked Although the house tragically burned to the ground in 1957 many of its surviving architectural elements and interior characteristics are included in this volume Also featured are Tiffany's personal collections of his own work breathtaking stained glass windows paintings glass and ceramic vases as well as the artist's collections of Japanese Chinese and Native American works of art Metropolitan Museum of Art website American Book Publishing Record R.R.
