Snapchat AI Features.

Thank you for sharing the article with me. It appears that Snapchat has indeed rolled out a new feature called "Snapchat AI" that uses a chatbot powered by the ChatGPT language model to interact with users. This chatbot allows users to have conversations with an AI-powered assistant within the Snapchat app.

According to the article, the Snapchat AI chatbot can assist users with a range of tasks, such as answering questions, recommending products, and providing personalized content. However, it is important to note that this chatbot is only available in certain regions and languages and may not be accessible to all Snapchat users.
