Medical Legal Aspects of Medical Records Patricia W Iyer,Barbara J Levin,Mary Ann Shea,2009-05-01      Medical Records and the Law William H.

Roach,2003 Health Administration      Medical Records and the Law William Roach,1998-08      Health Records and the Law Donna K. Hammaker,2018-08-21 This fifth edition of Health Records and the Law addresses the substantial changes brought about by the Health Insurance Portability and Accountability Act HIPAA and the growth of network information systems with discussion of state laws affecting the use and disclosure of patient data The text also discusses the highly complex interplay of federal and state privacy laws In addition to the considerable new material concerning HIPAA and its regulations this edition addresses the challenging area of how patient information may be used in connection with medical research and the impact that the Health Information Technology for Economic and Clinical Health HITECH Act is having on public health monitoring and surveillance      Automated Medical Records and the Law Eric W. Springer,1971 November 2006

Speller's Law Relating to Hospitals John Finch,2013-12-19 Hospitals definition and classification hospitals managed under the National Health Service Act 1977 voluntary hospitals nursing homes registration conduct and inspection legal proceedings against Health Authorities and Trusts injury to the patient consent to medical and associated treatment complaints in the National Health Service liability for premises patients property loss or damage visitors who refuse to leave search and arrest of suspected persons data protection access to medical records and reports medical records ownership and preservation professional confidence employment law nurses agencies professional qualifications injury at work the charity commissioners and charity trustees hospital charges provision of pay beds taxation of hospitals births and deaths in hospital organ transplants and disposal of the human body patient making a will illegal operations notifiable diseases medicines and poisons mental health law      Privacy and Healthcare Data Christina Munns,Subhajit Basu,2017-05-15 In order for the information society to realise its full potential personal data has to be disclosed used and often shared This book explores the disclosure and sharing of data within the area of healthcare Including an overview of how health information is currently managed the authors argue that with changes in modern society the idea of personal relationships with a local GP who solely holds and controls your health records is becoming rapidly outdated The authors aim to encourage and empower patients to make informed choices about sharing their health data They do this by developing a three stage theoretical model for change to the roles of the NHS and the individual The study generates debate to stimulate and inspire new models and policy and to provoke new visions for the sharing of healthcare data Such discussion is framed through an exploration of the changing concept of privacy and patient control in healthcare information management The volume draws on best practices from Europe and the USA and combines these to form a suggested vision for the UK as an early adopter of change The volume will be essential reading for academics in the field of privacy and data protection as well as healthcare and informatics professionals across different jurisdictions
