Medicine And Care Of The Dying A Modern History:

Medicine and Care of the Dying Milton James Lewis, 2007 This book is for palliative care practitioners and all health care professionals with an interest in end of life care Medicine and Care of the Dying Milton James Lewis, 2007 When the dying self contemplates its own disintegration in this context the search for meaning may rest heavy indeed Textbook of Palliative Medicine Eduardo Bruera, Irene Higginson, Charles F von Gunten, 2009-01-30 Textbook of Palliative Medicine provides an alternative truly international approach to this rapidly growing specialty This textbook fills a niche with its evidence based multi professional approach and global perspective ensured by the international team of editors and contributing authors In the absence of an international curriculum for the study of palliative medicine this textbook provides essential guidance for those both embarking upon a career in palliative medicine or already established in the field and the structure and content have been constructed very much with this in mind With an emphasis on providing a service anywhere in the world including the important issue of palliative care in the developing nations Textbook of Palliative Medicine offers a genuine alternative to the narrative approach of its competitors and is an ideal complement to them It is essential reading for all palliative care physicians in training and in practice as well as palliative care nurses and other health professionals in the palliative care team Oxford Textbook of Palliative Medicine Geoffrey W. C. Hanks, 2011-07-21 Emphasising the multi disciplinary nature of palliative care the fourth edition of this text also looks at the individual professional roles that contribute to the best quality palliative care Encyclopedia of Health Services Research Ross M. Mullner, 2009-05-20 Within two volumes more than 400 signed entries and their associated bibliographies and recommended readings authoritatively cover issues in both the historical and contemporary context of health services research Palliative Medicine E-Book T. Declan Walsh, Augusto T. Caraceni, Robin Fainsinger, Kathleen M. Foley, Paul Glare, Cynthia Goh, Mari Lloyd-Williams, Juan Nunez Olarte, Lukas Radbruch, 2008-10-07 As a palliative medicine physician you struggle every day to make your patients as comfortable as possible in the face of physically and psychologically devastating circumstances This new reference equips you with all of today's best international approaches for meeting these complex and multifaceted challenges In print and online it brings you the world's most comprehensive state of the art coverage of your field You'll find the answers to the most difficult questions you face every day so you can provide every patient with the relief they need Equips you to provide today's most effective palliation for terminal malignant diseases end stage renal cardiovascular respiratory and liver disorders progressive neurological conditions and HIV AIDS Covers your complete range of clinical challenges with in depth discussions of patient evaluation and outcome assessment ethical issues communication cultural and psychosocial issues research in palliative medicine principles of drug use symptom control nutrition disease modifying palliation rehabilitation and special interventions Helps you implement unparalleled expertise and global best practices with advice from a matchless international author team Provides in depth guidance on meeting the specific needs of pediatric and geriatric patients Assists you in skillfully navigating professional issues in palliative medicine such as education and training administration and the role of allied health professionals Includes just enough pathophysiology so you can understand the whys of effective decision making as well as the how tos Offers a user friendly full color layout for ease of reference including color coded topic areas mini chapter outlines decision trees and treatment algorithms Comes with access to the complete contents of the book online for convenient rapid consultation from any computer

Ethical Issues in Neurology James L. Bernat, 2008 Written by an eminent authority from the American Academy of Neurology's Committee on Ethics Law and Humanities this book is an excellent text for all clinicians interested in ethical decision making The book features outstanding presentations on dying and palliative care physician assisted suicide and voluntary active euthanasia medical futility and the relationship between ethics and the law New chapters in this edition discuss how clinicians resolve ethical dilemmas in practice and explore ethical issues in neuroscience research Other highlights include updated material on palliative sedation advance directives ICU withdrawal of life sustaining therapy gene therapy the very low birth weight premature infant the developmentally disabled patient informed consent organizational ethics brain death controversies and fMRI and PET studies relating to persistent vegetative state

Palliative Care Harold Y. Vanderpool, 2015-07-11 The long history of medical care for the dying has largely been neglected It began in 1605 when physicians were challenged to enable persons to die peacefully Today it includes palliation of oppressive symptoms emotional and psychological care and respect for the wishes and cultural backgrounds of patients and families Especially since the 1990s it embraces symptom easing palliation for patients with severe life limiting and chronic illnesses Providing a detailed picture of contemporary palliative care this book chronicles four centuries of the quest for a good death covering the fight against futile end of life treatments the history of life extending treatments and technologies the roles of nurses the liberation of the dying from isolation in hospitals and hard won victories to secure patients right to choose
