Meditations On The Gospels According To His Word:

Meditations on the Gospels Concordia Publishing House, 2009 Based on writings of the apostles in the first four books of the New Testament cover a variety of themes of interest to those who want to explore their Christian faith and the connection between the Word of God and their daily lives Fire of Mercy, Heart of the Word Erasmo Leiva-Merikakis, 2010-03-25 To the unstudied eye St Matthew's gospel can seem a terse narrative almost a historical document and not the tremendously spiritual and doctrinal storehouse that it is In his second volume of meditations on Matthew chapters 12-18 Erasmo Leiva shows Matthew's prose to be not terse so much as economical astoundingly so given its depth The lay reader can derive great profit from reading this Each short meditation comments on a verse or two pointing to some facet of the text not immediately apparent but rich with meaning Leiva's work is scholarly but eminently approachable by the lay reader The goal of the book is to help the reader experience the heat of the divine heart the light of the divine Word Leiva comments on the Greek text demonstrating nuances in the text that defy translation He uses numerous quotes from the Fathers and the Liturgy of the Church to demonstrate the way the Tradition has lived and read the Word of God His theological reflection vivifies doctrine by seeking its roots in the words and actions of Jesus Fire of Mercy, Heart of the Word, Vol. 4 Erasmo Leiva-Merikakis, 2021-05-20 To the unstudied eye St Matthew's gospel can seem a terse narrative almost a historical document and not the tremendously spiritual and doctrinal storehouse that it is In his fourth and final volume of meditations on Matthew chapters 26-28 Erasmo Leiva continues to show Matthew's prose to be not terse so much as economical astoundingly so given its depth The lay reader can derive great profit from reading this Each short meditation comments on a verse or two pointing to some facet of the text not immediately apparent but rich with meaning Leiva's work is scholarly but eminently approachable by the lay reader The tone is very much of taste and see how good the Lord is and an invitation of friend come up higher The goal of the book is to help the reader experience the heat of the divine heart and the light of the divine Word and aims at prayer as the final result of a fruitful encounter with the Word of God Leiva comments on the Greek text demonstrating nuances in the text that defy translation He uses numerous quotes from the Fathers and the Liturgy of the Church to demonstrate the way the Tradition has lived and read the Word of God His theological reflection vivifies doctrine by seeking its roots in the words and actions of Jesus Points of Interest Long awaited final volume in a widely beloved and deeply rich series of scripture study and meditation Scholarly but eminently approachable by the lay reader Theological reflection that vivifies doctrine by seeking its roots in the words and actions of Jesus Aims at prayer as the final result of a fruitful encounter with the Word of God The Gospels distributed into meditations for every day of the year, by l'abbé Duquesne Arnaud Bernard d' Icard Duquesne, 1881 Luther's Meditation on the Gospels Roland H. Bainton, 2023-10 A presentation of some of Martin Luther's most timeless and resonant sermons and lectures An Exposition of the Gospels John MacEvilly, 1898 Fire of Mercy, Heart of the Word Erasmo

Leiva-Merikakis,2011-11-04 To the unstudied eye Matthew's gospel can seem a terse narrative almost a historical document and not the tremendously spiritual and doctrinal storehouse that it is. Erasmo Leiva here acts as our guide showing Matthew's prose to be not terse so much as economical astoundingly so given its depth. The lay reader can derive great profit from reading this. Each short meditation comments on a verse or two pointing to some facet of the text not immediately apparent. Leiva's work is scholarly but eminently approachable by the non-technical reader. The tone is very much gustate et videte quoniam suavis est Dominus taste and see how good the Lord is as it is. Friend come up higher. The goal of the book is to help the reader experience the heat of the divine heart, the light of the divine Word. Leiva points to Matthew's gospel as being deeply ecclesial because it is first Christological. He comments on the Greek text demonstrating to the reader nuances in the text that defy translation into English without serious revision of the text. Leiva uses linguistic analysis to aid the non-Greek reader with the literal meaning of the text. Numerous quotes from the Fathers and the liturgy of the church demonstrate the way the Tradition has lived and read the Word of God. His theological reflection vivifies doctrine by seeking its roots in the words and actions of Jesus.

On the Gospels for the Sundays. From the Ital., revised and ed. by the oblates of st. Charles Angelo Agostino Scotti (abp. of Thessalonica.),1872 The Joy of Knowing Christ Pope Benedict XVI,2009-01-06 As Pope Benedict XVI notes in the first meditation in this collection knowing that there is a God who is good who knows us who is so near to us is truly the gospel the good news that brings us joy. These fifty-five reflections on passages from the gospels taken from the pope's homilies and Angelus messages over the first three years of his papacy reveal Benedict's passionate love for Christ his depth of faith his grasp of Scripture and his perspective on the challenges facing us as Christians in the world today. Pope Benedict is a brilliant theologian and scholar but first and foremost he is a pastor and this is evident in every meditation in this collection. A strong advocate of lectio divina the prayerful reading of the Scriptures Pope Benedict shows us how much nourishment and inspiration we can derive from meditating on the word of God.
