

After the success of her first book, Mem continued to write best sellers including Elephant and Piggie's Big Book, Read Like and When a Tree Falls (both for young and children's literature) continued to flourish when she returned to Flinders University, this time as an Associate Professor of Literary Studies. She remained at Flinders for 24 years where she found her passion for teaching adults and developing a love of literature for her love of books led her to travel the world as an international literary consultant, making speeches and presentations on the importance of literature in the lives of children. She has spent her time teaching parents about the importance of reading to their children as a way of developing a life-long love of books. While travelling and spending her passion for children's literature, Mem continued to write. In fact, she released two new books in 2017 and promises there are new books on the way in the coming years.

Life Achievements

To this day, Mem Fox has written over 40 children's books, as well as several books for adults. These books have been translated into twenty-three languages and are known across the globe. Mem's first text, Pussycat Magic, just celebrated its 40th anniversary and remains a staple in any child's book collection. Throughout her career, Mem has been celebrated in a national Australian author and has received many awards for her contribution to Australian literature.

Mem Fox

Early Life

Mem Fox, one of Australia's most famous authors, was born in Melbourne in 1946. At the age of six months, her parents relocated to Africa where she spent the next eighteen years of her life. Growing up in Africa, Mem developed a love of writing. She recalls learning to write by tracing letters in the red dirt at school, making her own picture books at home with staples and sticky tape, as well as writing letters to her family back in Australia. Mem grew up in a house filled with books and says she was destined to love literature.

Early Career

At age 19, Mem moved to England for three years where she attended drama school. This experience helped develop Mem's understanding of literature as she studied poetry and performed classic Shakespearean plays. In 1970, after marrying her husband Malcom Fox, Mem returned to Australia and gave birth to her daughter, Chloe Fox.

Success as an Author

In her early thirties, Mem attended Flinders University where she studied children's literature. Chloe loved books and Mem saw this as an opportunity to expand her own knowledge of children's literature so she could share this with her daughter. She did not know that during this time at university, she was writing the first draft of her most famous text, Pussycat Magic. The book was rejected nine times by publishers before it was published. Over 10 million copies were sold and it became the best selling
