Muslim Political Participation In Europe:

Muslim Political Participation in Europe Jørgen S. Nielsen, 2013 Analyses European Muslim communities developing involvement in their political environment and related Muslim and public debates Muslim Political Participation in Europe Jørgen S. Nielsen, 2013-02-20 To what extent are Muslims in Europe integrated Muslims are increasingly making themselves noticed in the political process of Europe But what is happening behind the often sensational headlines This book looks at the processes and realities of Muslim participation in local and national politics in a range of Eastern and Western European countries voting patterns in local and national assemblies membership of elected councils and national parliaments and the tensions between ethnic political and religious identities It also asks how political participation and wider integration issues interrelate and considers how Muslims as ethnic groups or through specific institutions seek to locate themselves within European political society The Controversial Moderate Rachel Anne McCarthy, 2011 The Legal Treatment of Islamic Minorities in Europe Roberta Aluffi Beck-Peccoz, Giovanna Zincone, 2004 In all countries of the European Union the Muslim communities numbering about 15 000 000 people represent a substantial religious minority although it is a very varied group both in terms of religious practice and national origin The very weight of this minority forces the legal systems to come to terms with its presence However these changes are highly diversified and are evolving rapidly not necessarily towards greater tolerance This volume provides a brief sketch of these changes describing the situation of some member countries of the European Union Austria Belgium France Germany Greece Italy the Netherlands Portugal Spain Sweden and UK and of one of the enlargement candidate countries Romania The book also contains an initial attempt at comparison between European countries and the USA and an overall analysis of the problems posed by the Islamic presence in Europe and the strategies to manage them This work allows readers to draw some general conclusions on convergences and divergences within the European Union and the factors that determine them Muslim Women's Political Participation in France and Belgium Amina Easat-Daas, 2020-10-03 This book outlines the principal motivations opportunities and barriers to Muslim women's political participation in France and francophone Belgium Easat Daas draws on in depth comparative contextual analysis along with semi structured interview material with women from France and Belgium who self identify as Muslim and are active in a variety of modes of political participation such European Parliamentarians Senators councilwomen trade union activists and those engaged in grass roots political movements This provides an alternative framing of Muslim women removed from the tired and often exaggerated stereotypes that portray them as passive objects or sources of threat instead highlighting their remarkable resilience and consistent determination Through exploring the intersecting fault lines of racial Islamophobic and gendered struggles of Muslim women in these two cases this book also sheds new light on the role of European Islam political opportunity structures secularism and Muslim women's dress The Islamic Challenge Jytte Klausen, 2005-10-27 The voices in this book belong to legislators local officials doctors and engineers educators and intellectuals lawyers and social workers owners of small businesses translators and community activists They are also all Muslims who have decided to become engaged in political and civic organizations And for that reason they constantly have to explain themselves mostly in order to say who they are not They are not fundamentalists not terrorists and most do not support the introduction of Islamic religious law in Europe especially not its application to Christians This book is about who these people are and what they want This book is based on three hundred interviews with European Muslim leaders from six European countries Sweden Denmark the Netherlands Great Britain France and Germany The question of Islam in Europe is not a matter of global war and peace but raises difficult questions about the positions of Christianity and Islam in public life and about European identities There is not one Muslim position on how Islam should develop in Europe but many views and most Muslims are rather looking for ways to build institutions that will allow European Muslims to practice their religion in a way that is compatible with social integration

Research EU, 2015-02      Islam in the European Union Yunas Samad, Kasturi Sen, 2007 Papers presented at a conference held in 2003      Muslims in the Margin W. A. R. Shadid, P. Sj. van Koningsveld, 1996 The involvement of minorities in politics has been the subject of a considerable number of studies However these studies are rarely concerned with the political role in Western Europe of both Islam as a mobilising factor and the Muslims as a religious group comparable with other confessional groups creating political parties The importance of political participation of Muslims for the improvement of their social economic and cultural position as well as for the establishing of religious infrastructure has been widely recognized by politicians and scientists alike As relative newcomers in Western Europe most Muslims still occupy a marginal position which makes their active political participation all the more urgent Over the last decades initiatives have been taken in several countries to create Islamic political parties At the same time in most countries of Western Europe the established political parties are nominating members with an Islamic background among their candidates Furthermore many discussions have taken place about the feasibility of the integration of Islam within the European social and political systems Cabinet ministers and established political parties have developed views about the nature of Islam which are being crystallized in the policies of the national governments Central issues in these discussions are for instance the compatibility of Islam and parliamentary democracy and human rights the fear of religious fundamentalism and fanaticism as well as the oppression of women by Islam The present book contains fourteen contributions by specialists from various European countries

Political Participation and Identities of Muslims in Non-Muslim States W. A. R. Shadid, P. Sj. van Koningsveld, 1996 The involvement of minorities in politics has been the subject of a considerable number of studies However these studies are rarely concerned with the views of Muslims on their participation in the political processes of non Muslim societies Several Western scholars have thought and still think that the world from the perspective of Muslims can be divided in accordance with the dichotomy of the classical Islamic Law that distinguishes between the Territory of Islam and the Territory of War however during the last decennia various Muslim scholars have tried to reinterpret the position of Muslims in non Muslim societies in new religious terms by which this classification has been emended and corrected In this book four different views are distinguished the pragmatic idealistic or utopian re interpretative and traditionalist views It goes without saying that the practical implementaion of these views to a large degree depends upon the types of Muslim organizations and representative bodies in those societies as well as their denominational and ethnical backgrounds From an international comparative perspective it appears that contrary to the situation in Australia Muslims of most Western European states have been thus far unsuccessful in creating representative organizations at national levels This is also illustrated by studies of Muslim organizations in Germany Italy and the united Kingdom Another important factor consists of the views of the younger generations of Muslim immigrants about the compatibility of their Islamic identiity and full participation in the non Muslim secular societies in which they are living Research on this subject contained in the present book responds to this question in an affirmative way

Muslims in the Enlarged Europe Brigitte Maréchal,2003 Based on extensive bibliographical research field studies and specific contributions of scholars this volume provides a useful overall review of the presence of Islam in Europe Political Islam and Europe Robert Springborg,2007 Muslim Communities in the New Europe Gerd Nonneman,Tim Niblock,Bogdan Szajkowski,1996 This text examines the evolving fate of Europe s Muslims comparing the status role and perceptions of these communities across Europe and Western Europe following the demise of communist authoritarianism

Muslims in Western Politics Abdulkader H. Sinno,2009 Islam as a social and political force in Western liberal democracies Relations Between the European Union and the Muslim World in the Contemporary Geopolitical and Economic Scenario Naveed Ahmad Tahir,2002 Political Culture in the Baltic Sea Area and in Eastern Europe Walter Rothholz,2003 Muslims in Contemporary Europe Robert Goehlert,2006 Regionalism and Immigration in the Context of European Integration Takashi Miyajima,Takamichi Kajita,Mutsuo Yamada,1999

Human Rights in the Muslim World Maimul Ahsan Khan,2003 Human Rights in the Muslim World presents a comprehensive study of Islam the main tenets of Islamic Law and Fundamentalism It offers a unique insider s view of human rights rule of law and fundamentalist trends in the Muslim World It discusses the complex and problematic relationship between the institutionalization of Islamic doctrine or religious practice and the modern universal human rights doctrine as well as the opinions Islamists hold towards democratization and the implementation of human rights in Muslim countries Human Rights in the Muslim World focuses on the dichotomies of sociopolitical economic and cultural life in Muslim statehood and the military build up within the nation building process Khan explores where the main breeding grounds for Muslim fundamentalist forces are and how such forces operate and are governed In exploring such issues this book presents an ongoing discussion and analysis of Muslim fundamentalism that puts atheistic anti religious secular ideologies and political movements in religious and spiritual perspective This book is a serious scholarly attempt at finding objective answers to many questions regarding Islam This study is strong on historical religious and philosophical analysis and the author s discussion of the Medina Charter of 622 is quite illuminating Basically Khan presents an excellent account of the development of Islamic law This fascinating book is a great read to examine before attempting to delve into contemporary human rights cases in the Muslim world Summing up Highly Recommended CHOICE Magazine November 2003
