Muslims Under Latin Rule, 1100-1300 James M. Powell, 2014-07-14 Covering Portugal and Castile in the West to the Latin Kingdom of Jerusalem in the East this collection focuses on Muslim minorities living in Christian lands during the high Middle Ages and examines to what extent notions of religious tolerance influenced Muslim Christian relations The authors call into question the applicability of modern ideas of toleration to medieval social relations investigating the situation instead from the standpoint of human experience within the two religious cultures Whereas this study offers no evidence of an evolution of coherent policy concerning treatment of minorities in these Christian domains it does reveal how religious ideas and communitarian traditions worked together to blunt the harsh realities of the relations between victors and vanquished The chapters in this volume include The Mudejars of Castile and Portugal in the Twelfth and Thirteenth Centuries by Joseph F O Callaghan Muslims in the Thirteenth Century Realms of Aragon Interactions and Reaction by Robert I Burns S J The End of Muslim Sicily by David S H Abulafia The Subjected Muslims of the Frankish Levant by Benjamin Z Kedar and The Papacy and the Muslim Frontier by James M Powell Originally published in 1990 The Princeton Legacy Library uses the latest print on demand technology to again make available previously out of print books from the distinguished backlist of Princeton University Press These editions preserve the original texts of these important books while presenting them in durable paperback and hardcover editions The goal of the Princeton Legacy Library is to vastly increase access to the rich scholarly heritage found in the thousands of books published by Princeton University Press since its founding in 1905

The Agency of the Conquered Eric Böhme, 2025-09-08 Eric Böhme analyses two processes of conquest which are generally considered prime examples of the expansion of Latin Christian powers into the Islamicate Mediterranean The Norman conquest of Sicily 1061 1091 put a close to more than two hundred years of Muslim rule over the island Two centuries later the Catalan Aragonese conquest of eastern al Andalus c 1229 1245 and its transformation into the Kingdom of Valencia constituted a major advance in the Christian expansion on the Iberian Peninsula The striking parallels between both changes of rulership are now analysed in depth for the first time At the centre of the analysis is the perspective of the conquered Muslim communities With what motivation and strategies did they participate in processes of interaction and negotiation with the new rulers and other immigrant groups

Jerusalem, 1000-1400 Barbara Drake Boehm, Melanie Holcomb, 2016-09-14 Medieval Jerusalem was a vibrant international center home to multiple cultures faiths and languages Harmonious and dissonant voices from many lands including Persians Turks Greeks Syrians Armenians Georgians Copts Ethiopians Indians and Europeans passed in the narrow streets of a city not much larger than midtown Manhattan Patrons artists pilgrims poets and scholars from Christian Jewish and Islamic traditions focused their attention on the Holy City endowing and enriching its sacred buildings creating luxury goods for its residents and praising its merits This artistic fertility was particularly in evidence between the eleventh and fourteenth centuries notwithstanding often devastating circumstances from the earthquake of 1033 to the fierce battles of the Crusades So strong a magnet was Jerusalem that it drew out the creative imagination of even those separated from it by great distance from as far north as Scandinavia to as far east as present day China This publication is the first to define these four centuries as a singularly creative moment in a singularly complex city Through absorbing essays and incisive discussions of nearly 200 works of art Jerusalem 1000 1400 Every People Under Heaven explores not only the meaning of the city to its many faiths and its importance as a destination for tourists and pilgrims but also the aesthetic strands that enhanced and enlivened the medieval city that served as the crossroads of the known world , The Social Archaeology of the Levant Assaf Yasur-Landau, Eric H. Cline, Yorke Rowan, 2018-12-20 The volume offers a comprehensive introduction to the archaeology of the southern Levant modern day Israel Palestine and Jordan from the Paleolithic period to the Islamic era presenting the past with chronological changes from hunter gatherers to empires Written by an international team of scholars in the fields of archaeology epigraphy and bioanthropology the volume presents central debates around a range of archaeological issues including gender ritual the creation of alphabets and early writing biblical periods archaeometallurgy looting and maritime trade Collectively the essays also engage diverse theoretical approaches to demonstrate the multi vocal nature of studying the past Significantly The Social Archaeology of the Levant updates and contextualizes major shifts in archaeological interpretation The Race for Paradise Paul M. an age of faith and war and tempered by great statesmen religious leaders and artists medieval civilizations witnessed remarkable transformations Far from being a homogeneous world of knights and castles the era saw a multitude of contrasting and often competing cultures many of which became the foundation stones for the emergence of modern societies From the expansion of Islam across the Mediterranean to the appearance of centralized states and Christian monarchies the Atlas of the Medieval World draws from new archival and archaeological evidence to reveal a period of astonishing cultural vibrancy and political diversity Alongside stunning maps covering nearly a millennium of one of the most formative phases in history hundreds of exquisite pictures of art and architecture accompany expertly written text edited by Rosamond McKitterick Professor of Early Medieval History at Cambridge University to bring an extraordinary period to life as no reference has before The Arab invasions of Europe the empire of Charlemagne the African kingdoms of Songhai and Mali the Crusades the Viking and Mongol invasions the Delhi sultanate and the T ang and Ming empires are just a few of the subjects explained in the Atlas of the Medieval World What s more cultural and economic trends such as the spread of literacy and the growth of towns receive equal attention alongside the emergence of kingdoms and the march of armies to form a comprehensive history of all major societies outside of the Americas during the Middle Ages
