My Beautiful Bow An Adoption Story:

My Beautiful Bow Lauren Goldman Marshall, 2010 The red ribbons of a little girl's sash become imaginary ties to her birth mother and her adoptive mother in this children's picture book aimed at ages 4-8 Abby wonders if she came from her mother's belly like her older sister When a casual comment at the breakfast table prompts questions Abby learns how the birth mother who carried her in her belly and the forever mommy who carries her on her hip both love her and have helped to make her who she is Your birth mother gave you a lovely singing voice her Mommy tells her I give you songs to sing Although the little girl in the book is from China her story is relevant to all adopted children whether adopted domestically or internationally Illustrations by the sister of the protagonist offer a fresh child's perspective and provide a compelling back story underscoring the theme that love is what makes a family I'll be so glad to have this as a teaching and supporting tool I really want my daughter to be able to think about her birth parents and their role in her life This book is perfect and honestly the only thing I've seen on this topic for young kids Nancy Cohen Ph D adoptive mother and child psychologist The History of an Adopted Child Geraldine Endor Jewsbury, 1853 A woman relates the story of her childhood and youth She lived in her grandparents house until she was old enough to go to a boarding school in the village One day she was sent home and discovered her mother had come back but her mother was ill and soon died Her Aunt Simon then took her in but soon banished her to the servants quarters Next a neighbor next asked permission to adopt her A letter from her father arrived and soon she was living with him and his new wife As a young woman she began working as an invalid's companion and eventually learns that this is the house where her mother fell in love with her father In this house she meets a young man of substance who learns to love her They marry and set off to start their life in a house he has bought for her The road seems familiar and the circle is complete her new home is her grandparents house A Bastard's Refuge II Rejected by Man But Adopted by God J. Godley-Ramos, 2007-12-01 Grab hold to those nerve pills A Bastard's Refuge II catapults you to a place where the fearful dare not tread taking you on a riveting journey as it exposes Pulpit Venom What is a person to do when he she is under the leadership of a Ravenous Wolf instead of a loving pastor Unlike others that merely dance around the issue this book goes there and blows the wolves out of the water A true firebrand Prophetess J Godley Ramos puts it down hard so get ready to say AMEN or OUCH Whew The Bootleg Shepherds the Wolf Clerics the Prophet Wannabes and sadly even the poor Slumbering Sheep are in for a rude awakening ABR II is a crooked pastor's worse nightmare but it is the answer to prayer for the many who have been wounded by them No longer will they rape the flock and go free Bootlegs give God's good pastor's a bad name The church may not be ready for this one because things will never be the same again we mean it Dagon shall fall down Play with Me Sally Miller, Cheri Mueller, 2006 Second book in series by authors Sally Miller and Cheri Mueller Inspires mothers to draw closer to God through relationships with their children and each other Follow up to the successful Walk With Me FaithWalk 2005 Two young moms writers and fellow Wheaton College grads weave personal stories recipes and poetry around the theme of seeing God through the eyes of their children Play With Me inspires women to celebrate the sacred beauty of God in ordinary life by following their children simple playful forward tumbling lead The authors share honestly about their mothering challenges and joys while rejoicing in the shared gift of life with children Sally Miller is a freelance writer and conference speaker who lives with her husband and three children in a Chicago suburb She has been published in several publications and is author of Girl Talk God Talk What My Friends Have Taught Me About Prayer Harvest House 2006 and co author of Walk With Me Two Friends on a Spiritual Journey Together FaithWalk 2005 Cheri Mueller is a freelance writer speaker and teacher who has a passion for people with disabilities She served in the social work field for over ten years before settling into a Minneapolis suburb with her husband and three children Cheri is co author of Walk With Me Two Friends on a Spiritual Journey Together FaithWalk 2005

Glimmers of Hope Tapiwa N. Mucherera, 2013-02-20 Every individual has a story painful or happy and the story will only be complete and meaningful when shared with others willing to listen to it These are the stories of several people who embarked on a journey toward healing from abortion adoption abuse sexual and spousal anger bullying cutting infertility divorce grief people pleasing and fear as well as people struggling to break the chains of psychological colonialism neocolonialism and to survive as orphans This book contains a wealth of knowledge on how transformation of life can take place using Narrative Counseling Most of the stories shared in this book are personal to many of the authors Some share their journey of struggling with hopeless situations to where they regained hope through counseling using the Narrative approach Others such as the orphaned children found relief in just having someone sit with them to listen to their daily struggles of living an orphaned life In this book you will find a place where these stories will somehow intersect with your own story Take a chance read and you will find a glimmer of hope in these stories
