Ahmed Khatri,Ernest Porterfield,197? A Multicultural Perspective on Marriage and Family Therapy Augustine Nwoye,2025-10-03 This book is composed of two sections and nineteen chapters in all Section 1 encompasses the conceptual and theoretical foundations while Section 2 addresses key issues and problems with marriage and the family In Africa the complementary institutions of marriage and the family are greatly appreciated Accordingly students and scholars in psychology in African universities clamour for texts on marriage and family therapy that give recognition to those African values that have stood the test of time Given that most of the existing textbooks on marriage and family therapy are authored by our Eurowestern colleagues who know about and foster only the Eurowestern tradition on marriage and family practice it is considered timely that the present book be produced with the contents and message that could occupy the middle ground of the two traditions African and Western The book presents a valuable addition to the existing literature on marriage and family therapy tailored to suit the interests and needs of students and scholars in global Africa and the wider world

Africa's Social and Religious Quest Randee Ijatuyi-Morphé,2014-01-30 This well crafted book probes the key dimensions of Africa's existential predicament It constitutes an intellectual response to a gnawing African situation the starting point for grasping Africa's social and religious quest Beyond split explanations of external versus internal factors e g colonization slavery vs leadership cultural values this study accounts more comprehensively for emergent issues shaping this situation The situation reflects a gamut of problems in traditional African religion and material culture which hitherto defines African communalities polities and destinies vis vis the cosmos and nature Thus African religion and communities each with its own attendant values do not operate by critical engagement with larger issues of society and civilization especially those shaped by the advent of post modernity Rather they operate via adaptation The communal drive for natural and social harmony inevitably produces a preservationist view of culture leaving things as they are This study takes an integrative approach to religion society and civilization eschews dichotomies and broadly defines and re signifies life and wholeness as a true end of Africans quest today Current Perspectives Janell L. Carroll,2005-02 The selections in this reader have been carefully culled from InfoTrac College Edition an online university library of more than 5 000 academic and popular magazines newspapers and journals Revelation and the Church Raymond A.
