Air Force Reserve. Air Refueling Wing, 927th, 1996 The Middle Atlantic League, 1925-1952 William E. Akin, 2015-08-13 The small and midsized cities of western Pennsylvania Ohio and West Virginia reached their peaks of population and prosperity in the second quarter of the 20th century The baseball teams from these towns formed the Middle Atlantic League the strongest circuit in the low minors and the one with the most alumni to advance to the majors This thorough history chronicles the MAL through three distinct phases from its 1925 inaugural season to its dissolution in 1952 During the first several seasons most clubs hung one step from financial disaster despite support from local communities Then the league flourished during the Great Depression as president Elmer Daily magically found investors and night baseball boosted working class attendance Now enjoying a modicum of financial stability and an infusion of young talent the clubs became talent farms for major league teams Both the league and its cities went into decline as the country underwent seismic cultural and economic shifts following World War II The Cultural Encyclopedia of Baseball, 2d ed. Jonathan Fraser Light, 2016-03-25 More than any other sport baseball has developed its own niche in America s culture and psyche Some researchers spend years on detailed statistical analyses of minute parts of the game while others wax poetic about its players and plays Many trace the beginnings of the civil rights movement in part to the Major Leagues decision to integrate and the words and phrases of the game for example pinch hitter and out in left field have become common in our everyday language From AARON HENRY onward this book covers all of what might be called the cultural aspects of baseball as opposed to the number rich statistical information so widely available elsewhere Biographical sketches of all Hall of Fame players owners executives and umpires as well as many of the sportswriters and broadcasters who have won the Spink and Frick awards join entries for teams owners commissioners and league presidents Advertising agents drafts illegal substances minor leagues oldest players
