Handbook for Teaching Secondary School Social Studies James W. Stockard, 2007. Handbook for Teaching Secondary School Social Studies is a guide, a tool, and a reference for pre-service and in-service teachers, clarifying the most effective ways to teach social studies in secondary school classrooms. Its intention is to help teachers become creative practitioners who can motivate students, create stimulating learning environments, and bring the core disciplines of social studies to life. Its goal in effect is to help teachers make social scientists of their students. The information contained in this book will enable teachers to become the catalyst for students' transformation into cognizant, confident citizens capable of making a difference in our world. The handbook is brief and manageable yet it provides pre-service and in-service teachers with comprehensive and in-depth coverage of research-based pedagogy, planning skills, standards-based instructional delivery approaches, and grade-level expectations for the core disciplines of the social studies.
