Murder in the Gunroom H. Beam Piper,2015-10-30 It was hard to judge Jeff Rand s age from his appearance he was certainly over thirty and considerably under fifty He looked hard and fit like a man who could be a serviceable friend or a particularly unpleasant enemy Women instinctively suspected that he would make a most satisfying lover One might have taken him for a successful lawyer he had studied law years ago or a military officer in mufti he still had a Reserve colonelcy and used the title occasionally to impress people who he thought needed impressing or a prosperous businessman as he usually thought of himself Most of all he looked like King Charles II of England anachronistically clad in a Brooks Brothers suit At the moment he was looking rather like King Charles II being bothered by one of his mistresses who wanted a peerage for her husband But Mrs Fleming he was expostulating There surely must be somebody else After all you ll have to admit that this isn t the sort of work this agency handles The would be client released a series of smoke rings and watched them float up toward the air outlet at the office ceiling It spoke well for Rand s ability to subordinate esthetic to business considerations that he was trying to give her a courteous and humane brush off She made even the Petty and Varga girls seem credible Her color scheme was blue and gold blue eyes and a blue tailored outfit that would have looked severe on a less curvate figure and a charmingly absurd little blue hat perched on a mass of golden hair If Rand had been Charles II she could have walked out of there with a duchess s coronet and Nell Gwyn would have been back selling oranges Why isn t it she countered Your door s marked H. Beam Piper John F. Carr,2014-02-11 H Beam Piper is one of science fiction s most enigmatic writers In 1946 Piper appeared seemingly from out of nowhere already at the top of his form He published a number of memorable short stories in the premier science fiction magazine of the time Astounding Science Fiction under legendary editor John W Campbell Piper quickly became friends with many of the top writers of the day including Lester Del Rey Fletcher Pratt Robert Heinlein and L Sprague de Camp Piper also successfully made the turn from promising short story writer to major novelist authoring Four Day Planet Cosmic Computer Lord Kalvan of Otherwhen and Little Fuzzy which was nominated for a
