Dim Wit Rosemarie Jarski, 2008-12-05. They underestimated me. George W. Bush. Einstein said only two things are infinite: the universe and human stupidity. So in deference to the dumbing down of our culture comes Dim Wit, a collection of the most jaw-droppingly stupid things ever said. The cast includes every famous foot-in-mouth from George W. Bush to Prince Philip, Paris Hilton to Jade Goody, not to mention hundreds of unsung idiots plucked from villages the world over. The result is a confederacy of dunces more pro fun than profound; a clever witticism may coax an inward smile but it takes a really stupid remark to deliver a belly laugh. So pick up Dim Wit and prepare to embrace your inner moron; it may be the smartest thing you do. My grandma overheard two women talking in a doctor's surgery. After a while one said to the other: 'Do you know Mary? I don't feel too well. I think I'll go home.' Robyn Jankel: 'I don't think anyone should write his autobiography until after he's dead.' The first sports commentary was of the fight of the century, the world heavyweight title bout between Jack Dempsey and Georges Carpentier in New Jersey in 1921. The first British broadcast was also of a bout involving Carpentier; this time he was facing Ted Kid Lewis at Olympia and the commentator was W. Southey. British newspapers worried about the threat of radio managed to stop commentators by insisting that radio could broadcast only reports by agencies but this did not last. Ever since radio sports commentary has been going from strength to strength. Berkshire Encyclopedia of World Sport, 2005.
