Remembering Musical Childhoods in Vietnam Tina A. Huynh, 2024-08-06 This book offers an in depth exploration of the childhood musical experiences of Vietnamese elders providing a unique lens on the intersections between identity culture and music education Centering the stories of five Vietnamese Americans and one Vietnamese person who grew up in Vietnam between 1931 and 1975 the author considers the role that each individual's childhood musical experiences played in their life as they were impacted by war political movements and immigrant and refugee experiences The book adds a new perspective to research on the global music practices of children by exploring music transmission and repertoire in Vietnam in the context of political unrest and colonialism before and during the Vietnam War It also explores the evolution of the personal meanings and memories of music over a period of drastic change in each individual's life as five of six elders transitioned into a life in the United States This book provides both an act of cultural and musical preservation and relevant implications for music education today Situating the children's songs and games of Vietnamese culture in their original context the author invites those in the field of music education to consider how lived experiences and entrenched systems of teaching affect music learning and identity formation The volume includes a selection of Vietnamese children s songs games chants and musicopoetic lullabies ca dao offering ways to enrich music educators world music curricula Relevant to music education ethnomusicology and Asian American studies this book provides a nuanced account of Vietnamese children s music making of the past and presents an analysis of childhood musical experiences in a wider cultural sociopolitical and historical context

Music Education as Critical Theory and Practice

Lucy Green,2017-07-05 This collection of previously published articles chapters and keynotes traces both the theoretical contribution of Lucy Green to the emergent field of the sociology of music education and her radicalhands on practical work in classrooms and instrumental studios The selection contains a mixture of material from essays that have appeared in major journals and books to some harder to find publications It spans issues from musical meaning ideology identity and gender in relation to music education to changes and challenges in music curricula and pedagogy and includes Green s highly influential work on bringing informal learning into formal music education settings A newly written introduction considers the relationship between theory and practice and situates each essay in relation to some of the major influences within and beyond the field of music education which affected Green s own intellectual journey from the 1970s to the present day
