Two paragraphs below are a mixture of French and English. You need to write each paragraph in full in both languages. Half the answers are already provided in the text. You will need to use your knowledge to work out the rest.

Le genre de musique que j'aime le plus est la musique pop. Cependant, j'aime aussi la musique hip hop. Last weekend I went to a concert, et j'ai vu mon chanteur préféré. Mon chanteur préféré qui s'appelle Taylor Swift. Elle est très talentueuse. Tonight, I am going to listen to my favourite songs in my bedroom. I love music because it relaxes me.

Music, Text and Translation Helen Julia Minors, 2013-05-23 Explores the roles that translation plays in a musical context questioning the transference of sense between music and text Music and Translation Lucile

Desblache, 2019-06-04 This book explores how transformations and translations shape musical meanings developments and the perception of music across cultures Starting with the concept of music as multimodal text the author understands translation as the process of transferring a text from one language verbal or not into another interlingually intralingually or intersemiotically as well as the products that are derived from this process She situates music and translation within their contemporary global context examining the tensions between local and global cosmopolitan and national and universal and specific settings to arrive at a celebration of the translational power of music and an in depth study of how musical texts are translated This book will be of interest to translation studies scholars who want to broaden their horizons as well as to musicians and music scholars seeking to understand how cultural exchange and dissemination can be driven by translation

Translating Song Peter Low, 2016-10-14 The first textbook guide available to show students how to translate song lyrics Includes a glossary and annotated bibliography to reinforce and aid learning Music videos and audio clips accessible via the translation studies portal provide examples for practice A Theory of Translation for Musical Texts from German Into English Lloyd Alvin Zurbrigg, 1963

Translating For Singing Ronnie Apter, Mark Herman, 2016-05-19 Translating for Singing discusses the art and craft of translating singable lyrics a topic of interest in a wide range of fields including translation music creative writing cultural studies performance studies and semiotics Previously such translation has most often been discussed by music critics many of whom had neither training nor experience in this area Written by two internationally known translators the book focusses mainly on practical techniques for creating translations meant to be sung to pre existing music with suggested solutions to such linguistic problems as those associated with rhythm syllable count vocal burden rhyme repetition and sound Translation theory and translations of lyrics for other purposes such as surtitles are also covered The book can serve as a primary text in courses on translating lyrics and as a reference and supplementary text for other courses and for professionals in the fields mentioned Beyond academia the book is of interest to professional translators and to librettists singers conductors stage directors and audience members Song and Significance

, 2005-01-01 Vocal translation is an old art but the interpretive feeling skill and craft have expanded into a relatively new area in translation studies Vocal translation is the translation of the poetic discourse in the hybrid art of the musicopoetic or poeticomusical forms shapes and skills This symbiotic construct harmonizes together the conflicting roles of music and language in face to face singing performances The artist sings in an accurate but free flow but sung in a language different from the original lyrics Vocal translation is a living together community of composer and poet and translator they work together though separately in time and place through the structure and meaning of the vocalized verbal language The meaning of the songs is influenced by the elements of musical expression melody impulse pitch duration loudness timbre and dynamics each of which is governed by its own rules and emotions The movement of the lyrics is an essential and meaningful attribute of the musical rhythms pauses pitches stresses and articulations of the entire songs The presence of the original and translated song structures its sounds senses and gestures to suggest semiotic meaningfulness In opera folksong hymn and art song as well as in operetta musical song and popular song we have musical genres allied to a libretto with lyrical text A libretto is a linguistic text which is a pre existing work of art but is subordinated to the musical text The essays in Song and Significance Virtues and Vices of Vocal Translation provide interpretive models for the juxtaposition of different orders of the singing sign events in different languages extending the meaning and range of the musical and literary concepts and putting the mixed signs to a true and false test

Translation and Music Sebnem Susam-Sarajeva, 2016-04-08 Popular and multimodal forms of cultural products are becoming increasingly visible within translation studies research Interest in translation and music however has so far been relatively limited mainly because translation of musical material has been considered somewhat outside the limits of translation studies as traditionally conceived Difficulties associated with issues such as the musicality of lyrics the fuzzy boundaries between translation adaptation and rewriting and the pervasiveness of covert or unacknowledged translations of musical elements in a variety of settings have generally limited the research in this area to overt and canonized translations such as those done for the opera Yet the intersection of translation and music can be a fascinating field to explore and one which can enrich our understanding of what translation is and how it relates to other forms of expression This special issue is an attempt to open up the field of translation and music to a wider audience within translation studies and to an extent within musicology and cultural studies The volume includes contributions from a wide range of musical genres and languages from those that investigate translation and code switching in North African rap and rai and the intertextual and intersemiotic translations revolving around Mahler's lieder in Chinese to the appropriation and after life of Kurdish folk songs in Turkish and the emergence of rock n roll in Russian Other papers examine the reception of Anglo American stage musicals and musical films in Italy and Spain the concept of singability with examples from Scandinavian languages and the French dubbing of musical episodes of TV series The volume also offers an annotated bibliography on opera translation and a general bibliography on translation and music

Song Translation: Lyrics in Contexts Johan Franzon, Annjo K. Greenall, Sigmund Kvam, Anastasia Parianou, 2021-02-01 Song Translation Lyrics in Contexts grew out of a project dedicated to the translation of song lyrics The book aligns itself with the tradition of descriptive translation studies Its authors scholars from Finland Great Britain Greece Italy Norway and Sweden all deal with the translation of song lyrics in a great variety of different contexts including music and performance settings inter cultural perspectives and historical backgrounds On the one hand the analyses demonstrate the breadth and diversity of the concept of translation itself on the other they show how different contexts set up conditions that shape translational practices and products in different ways The book is intended for translation studies scholars as well as for musicologists students of language and or music and practicing translators in short anybody interested in this creative and fascinating field of translational practice
