Muslim Christian Dialogues:

Muslim Christian Dialogue Hasan M. Baagil, 1984 C Why have there been in the last decade many discussions held between Christians and Muslims about their beliefs M I think because we both have several things in common We believe in the One Creator Who sent many Prophets and in Jesus as the Messiah as well as the Word of God who was denied by the Jews Our Holy Qur'an mentions in Surah 3:45 Remember when the angels said O Mary Verily Allah gives you the glad tidings of a Word from Him his name will be Messiah Jesus the son of Mary held in honor in this world and in the hereafter and of those who are near to Allah Dialogues have been held everywhere in Europe Canada the United States and Australia Even the Vatican has participated discussions were held between Vatican theologians and Egyptian Muslim scholars in Rome in 1970 and in Cairo in 1974 Guidelines for Dialogue Between Christians and Muslims Maurice Borrmans, 1990 Provides a basic knowledge of Islamic beliefs and practices so that Christians may be better prepared to engage in dialogue with Muslims

Fitzgerald, Michael Fitzgerald, Robert Caspar, 1992 Muslims, Christians, and the Challenge of Interfaith Dialogue Jane I. Muslim-Christian Engagement in the Twentieth Century Charles Fletcher, 2014-10-21 Christian Muslim dialogue grows increasingly important but little is known about individual Muslim dialogical thinkers Born in Palestine in 1921 Ismail al Faruqi was a leading figure in the development of conversation and debate across faiths in North America in the second half of the twentieth century and was actively engaged in inter faith study and dialogue Al Faruqi founded the Islamic Studies programme at Temple University Pennsylvania where several distinguished Muslim intellectuals have taught such as Seyyid Hossein Nasr Mahmoud Ayoub and Hasan Hanafi Along with Kenneth Cragg and Wilfred Cantwell Smith al Faruqi was an active participant in Muslim Christian dialogues in the 1970s and the 1980s Charles Fletcher here presents the first study dedicated to Ismail al Faruqi's theory and practice of interfaith dialogue Analysing al Faruqi's sometimes provocative ideas on the comparative study of religion dialogue and practical engagement the author provides an illuminating study of the life and thought of this important scholar Tracing the development of al Faruqi's ideas and practice of inter faith dialogue

Fletcher shows how Muslim intellectuals engaged in such attempts viewed their role as representatives of the worldwide Muslim community With perceptive insights into the history of contemporary Muslim Christian dialogue this book will be invaluable for all those interested in inter faith relations comparative religious studies North American Muslims and Islamic studies

Common Words in Muslim-Christian Dialogue Vebjørn Horsfjord,2017-10-23 In Common Words in Muslim Christian Dialogue Vebj rn L Horsfjord offers an analysis of texts from an international dialogue process between Christian and Muslim leaders Through detailed engagement with the Muslim dialogue letter A Common Word between Us and You 2007 and a large number of Christian responses to it the study analyses the dialogue process in the wake of the Muslim initiative and shows how the various texts gain meaning through their interaction The author uses tools from critical discourse analysis and speech act analysis and claims that the Islamic dialogue initiative became more important as an invitation to Muslim Christian dialogue than as theological reflection He shows how Christian leaders systematically chose to steer the dialogue process towards practical questions about peaceful coexistence and away from theological issues

Muslim-Christian Dialogue in Nigeria Victor Chukwulozie,1986

Common Words in Muslim-Christian Dialogue Vebjørn L. Horsfjord,2018 In Common Words in Muslim Christian Dialogue Vebj rn L Horsfjord traces the international interreligious dialogue process between Islamic and Christian leaders that followed in the wake of the Muslim dialogue letter A Common Word between Us and You 2007

Faith to Faith CHAWKAT MOUCARRY,2020-05-21 Is it possible for Christians and Muslims to engage in meaningful dialogue in genuine and truthful debate Do we dare to put our faith on trial To listen to each other in the best possible way and to give the reason for the hope that we have with gentleness and respect as we are commanded The two faiths hold much in common tracing their roots back to a common ancestor And yet they have always held to something of a ghetto mentality Mutual ignorance is the price paid for trouble free co existence and for some perhaps the price for survival Prejudice and misunderstanding leads to confrontational debate where one side tries to ridicule attack and defeat the other Political correctness and tolerance simply leads to superficial agreement Chawkat Moucarry believes that there is a better way Ever since he surprised the religious Education teacher by asking if he could attend the Islamic class at high school he has been wholeheartedly committed to genuine Christian Muslim dialogue His prayer is that this book will help us to gain a better understanding of each other s faith as well as our own and above all a better understanding of the founder of that faith Muslim Christian Dialogue M. Darroll Bryant, Syed Ali, 1998-08 Can there be dialogue between Muslims and Christians Can we overcome the long history of antagonism between the two largest religious communities in the world who occupy nearly sixty percent of believing humanity In The Muslim Christian Dialogue 20 essays address these vital questions as they explore the promise and problems of dialogue between the two great traditions Here Muslims and Christians speak of their faith with passion and insight as they seek to move beyond mutual antagonism and caricatures the Muslim as terrorist the Christian as crusader toward mutual understanding The essays cover a range of issues from the encounter of Islam and Christianity with modernity to Islam in Africa from the role of women to the understanding of Jesus in Islam and Christianity and the role of the Prophet Muhammad in Muslim piety Rather than seeking to convert the other these internationally known scholars and religious leaders contribute to mutual understanding between Christians and Muslims Christianity and Islam Richard W. Rousseau, 1985 Christianity and Islam focuses on the infra structural or basic issues in the relationship between Christianity and Islam Two Traditions, One Space George C. Papademetriou, 2011 The Future of Interfaith Dialogue Yazeed Said, Yazid Said, Lejla Demiri, 2018-08-30 Provides insightful discussions of the exegetic and discursive process begun by the open letter A Common Word Between Us and You Sharing Lights on the Way to God Pim Valkenberg, 2006 This book seeks to give form to a theology that hyphenates two traditions that have not only been in constant conflict during most of their historical encounters but are also presented as opposite blocks in the threatening clash of civilizations at the beginning of the third millennium Islam and Christianity Based on experiences of dialogue between the three Abrahamic faiths this book analyzes historical and contemporary processes of interreligious dialogue between Christians and Muslims in order to arrive at a concept of dialogue as mutual emulation It shows how in their theologies of religious others Judaism Christianity and Islam have based their images of others on their self images This characteristic makes traditional theologies of religion quite unsuitable for interreligious dialogue Consequently the author of this book develops a model in which comparative theology and interreligious dialogue are connected by studying as a Christian theologian the theological and spiritual sources of his Muslim partners These exercises in comparative Muslim Christian theology comprise both the medieval Aquinas al Ghazali Rumi and the modern periods Said Nursi Fethullah Gulen Tariq Ramadan An interlude on Teresa of Avila s poem Nada te turbe shows how Christians may recover important insights from their own tradition by reading these Muslim theological and spiritual sources BOOK JACKET Contemporary Christian-Muslim Dialogue Douglas Pratt, 2021-02-28

This book introduces and examines the work of two significant 21st century Christian Muslim dialogue initiatives Building Bridges and the Christian Muslim Theological Forum and gives close attention to five theological themes that have been addressed in common by them An overview and analysis including inception development outputs and significance together with discussion of the select themes community scripture prophecy prayer and ethics allows for an in depth examination of significant contemporary Muslim and Christian scholarship on issues important to both faith communities The result is a challenging encounter to arguably a widespread default presumption of irredeemable mutual hostility and inevitable mutual rejection with instances of violent extremism as a consequence Demonstrating the reality that deep interreligious engagement is possible between the two faiths today this book should appeal to a wide readership including upper undergraduate and graduate teaching as well as professionals and practitioners in the field of Christian Muslim relations

Muslim Christian Dialogue Dr. Baagil, 2002 This book was written by a Muslim author who believes that in the Bible Jesus never claimed to be God that Jesus did not die on the cross that the miracles performed by Jesus were also performed by many other prophets and even disbelievers and that Jesus prophesied the advent of the Prophet Muhammad All of this and much more is detailed from the clear passages of the Bible No God But God A. Christian Van Gorder, 2003 Helps clear the way to a fruitful dialogue between Christians and Muslims by addressing several questions that are usually grounds for misunderstandings between the two
