Meyering,1994 American author Cather 1873-1947 wrote more than 60 short stories often using the genre as a medium to develop characters and themes that would later find their way into her novels In this reference each chapter is devoted to a single story and consists of five parts a publication history that lists when where and how many times the story appeared information about the circumstances of the story's composition connections to other stories essays or novels an overview of the critical response and a list of work cited in the chapter Annotation copyright by Book News Inc Portland OR    A Literary History of the American West Western Literature Association (U.S.),1987 Literary histories of course do not have a reason for being unless there exists the literature itself This volume perhaps more than others of its kind is an expression of appreciation for the talented and dedicated literary artists who ignored the odds avoided temptations to write for popularity or prestige and chose to write honestly about the American West believing that experiences long knowns to be of historical importance are also experiences that need and deserve a literature of importance
