Ten years ago there were no faith based units in prisons outside South America Today they are spreading all over the world including the United States Europe and the Commonwealth My Brother s Keeper is the first major study of a global phenomenon Exploring the roots of faith based units in South America it explains why the Prison Service of England and Wales set up the first Christian based unit in the western world in 1997 and its rapid expansion It also explains how at exactly the same time the United States introduced Christian based units and why they were complimented by interfaith and multifaith initiatives At the heart of My Brother s Keeper is an interior account of life inside four Christian based prison units in England It draws on the findings of a detailed evaluation conducted by the authors for the Home Office Prison Service and Kainos Community between 2000 and 2001 including an updated reconviction study It is an authoritative account of an innovative programme Its analysis of what works and what doesn t in faith based units around the world makes My Brother s Keeper a valuable roadmap for all who care about improving prison conditions It presents a vision of justice that is not just concerned with building more prisons but with rebuilding more prisoners It argues that by making prisons more human and punishment more humane faith based units can be of value and keep faith in prisons

Brother's Keeper Mahad Ali,2023-01-30 Two refugee brothers Aman and Hassan are dispersed to live in a small British seaside town hostile to immigration In desperate need of business hotelier Bill Bradley and his son Aidan agree to house them but face animosity from their community for doing so As Aidan takes Aman under his wing and they draw ever closer they soon learn the utopia they create for themselves in the hotel is no match for the real world and must confront the hostile climate they live in My Brother's Keeper explores the politics of immigration religion and sexuality as a small British town tries to find its place at a time of great change in the world a story of love pain and learning in building community Am I My Brother's Keeper? Andrew Stafford,2014-11-14 Are we responsible for the well being of our neighbors and our friends and family Obeying the command of God is detrimental in our efforts to reap eternal life I have attempted to share my efforts from personal experiences through the power of the Holy Spirit guiding my actions The Psalm in 37 25 says I have been young and now am old Yet I have not seen the righteous forsaken Nor his descendants begging bread NKJV The author Andrew Earl Stafford took years to chronicle his experiences for over seventy years as he interprets how the Holy Spirit guided him to be a leader to his family community and nation in sharing the presence of God in our everyday lives Andrew became aware of the presence of God at an early age as he observed how God protected and provided for his mother Maezell who in the 1940s turned down welfare because she viewed it as a trap to create dependence rather than an opportunity to succeed Four boys and one girl to raise Maezell was told by the welfare department that she could not own a car because it was considered a luxury Well Maezell's response was that she needed a car to transport her children to school besides she worked at a laundry until she retired Their father Clifford after leaving the navy had no choice but to try and earn a living playing baseball in the Old Negro Baseball Leagues His absence from the family created a situation of divorce Though they face possible economic challenges Maezell's goal was to make sure all of her children finished high school They all did and most with honors and all with perfect attendances Andrews book covers his struggles in poverty racism family society and in the realm of spiritual warfare Although you walk through the valley of the shadow of death theres no reason to fear evil Andrew learned firsthand how God will empower each of us to make this world a better place to live if we are willing to wait on him My Brother's Keeper N. Ananda Coomaraswamy,1977-06    I Am Mbk My Brothers Keeper Gerald Collins,2018-03-04 WORDS FROM THE AUTHOR There is a saying that we recite at the end of every A A meeting It works if you work it When Nugi Nichols Tahli was Senior Facilitator in the Greentree program he wrote an anthem for his C Tier Cougars Within that anthem was a saying Information is just information without application Both sayings led me to understand that if we don t apply action to the things we believe in then our belief is in vain As scripture tells us Faith without works is dead James 2 20 There are many people who want results but are not willing to put in the work to achieve them Anything worth having is worth working for Within that work comes much struggle many sacrifices disappointments and hardships I ve come to learn that when you work hard to attain something that something is now viewed as having even greater value Therefore you will work even harder to maintain and keep it Right now at the age of 62 I view everything about me as valuable During all of my sufferings my hardships my failures and my trials God brought me through and everything I was able to bring with me is valuable a gift from my creator There was a time in my life when I didn t understand my value so I sold myself out to a 5 00 bottle of alcohol a 10 00 bag of heroin a 20 00 around the world prostitute I sold my freedom to ignorance and my soul belonged to the god of this world Cor 4 4 Incarceration became my place of refuge because God was here and my final words are just like the first A LIFE CAN T CHANGE UNLESS THE HEART CHANGES FIRST AND THE ONLY ONE I KNOW WHO CAN CHANGE A HEART IS GOD OPENING STATEMENTS When I decided to write this book I thought about all those involved We all have our own perception of a thing and just because I feel see or believe a certain way about a thing does not mean that someone else feels sees or believes the same I give to you my understanding of how My Brother s Keeper Mentorship Program came about I express my state of mind and who and where I was before My Brother s Keeper was conceived in thought We never know what treasures may be found in the midst of our experiences but I can tell you my experiences left me filled with jewels As I traveled on my journey toward the establishment of the My Brother's Keeper Program I noticed that many of the people picked up along the way came with their own agendas that were contrary to the design and vision already established for the program Even in the midst of all this I learned many important lessons I even learned that the things I began to hate were only tests that made me stronger and all the crazy defiant and undermining things being done only showed me who I used to be I want to take this opportunity to thank every man and woman who appeared in my life throughout this journey the good the bad and the ugly because you all have prepared me for the things I am yet to face as I go continue my journey of being My Brother's Keeper I pray that anyone who reads this book will know that No Disrespect is intended to any of the names written herein This is simply My Brother's Keeper through the eyes and from the heart of Gerald Honcho Collins Co Founder of a wonderful program and lifestyle
