Peter Ruff and the Double-Four (Classic Reprint) E. Philips Oppenheim, 2015-07-26 Excerpt from Peter Ruff and the Double Four There was nothing about the supper party on that particular Sunday evening in November at Daisy Villa Green Street Streatham which seemed to indicate in any way that one of the most interesting careers connected with the world history of crime was to owe its very existence to the disaster which befell that little gathering The villa was the residence and also to his credit the unmortgaged property of Mr David Barnes a struggling but fairly prosperous coal merchant of excellent character some means and Methodist proclivities His habit of sitting without his coat when carving although deprecated by his wife and daughter on account of the genteel aspirations of the latter was a not unusual one in the neighborhood and coupled with the proximity of a cold joint of beef his seat at the head of the table and a carving knife and fork grasped in his hands established clearly the fact of his position in the household which a somewhat weak physiognomy might otherwise have led the casual observer to doubt About the Publisher Forgotten Books publishes hundreds of thousands of rare and classic books Find more at www.forgottenbooks.com This book is a reproduction of an important historical work Forgotten Books uses state of the art technology to digitally reconstruct the work preserving the original format whilst repairing imperfections present in the aged copy In rare cases an imperfection in the original such as a blemish or missing page may be replicated in our edition We do however repair the vast majority of imperfections successfully any imperfections that remain are intentionally left to preserve the state of such historical works Catalog of Reprints in Series, 1940
