Petrus Forestus Medicus:

Petrus Forestus Medicus Henriëtte Augusta Bosman-Jelgersma, 1996 A History of Science in the Netherlands Klaas van Berkel, Albert van Helden, L.C. Palm, 2023-07-03 In the 400 years of its modern history the Netherlands has produced a distinguished array of eminent mathematicians scientists and medical researchers including many Nobel prize winners and other internationally recognised figures from Stevin Snel and Huygens in the 17th century to Lorentz Kammerlingh Onnes Buys Ballot De Vries de Sitter and Oort in the 19th and 20th centuries Yet it has often been noted that the history of science in the Netherlands is underrepresented in the international literature The handbook A History of Science in The Netherlands aims to correct this situation by providing a chronological and thematic survey of the field from the 16th century to the present essays on selected aspects of science in the Netherlands and reference biographies of about 65 important Dutch scientists Written by more than 10 experts from Europe and North America the handbook is the standard English language reference work for the field

Centres of Medical Excellence? Andrew Cunningham, 2016-12-05 Students notoriously vote with their feet seeking out the best and most innovative teachers of their subject The most ambitious students have been travelling long distances for their education since universities were first founded in the 13th century making their own educational pilgrimage or peregrinatio This volume deals with the peregrinatio medica from the viewpoint of the travelling students who went where how did they travel what did they find when they arrived what did they take back with them from their studies Even a single individual could transform medical studies or practice back home on the periphery by trying to reform teaching and practice the way they had seen it at the best universities Other contributions look at the universities themselves and how they were actively developed to attract students and at some of the most successful teachers such as Boerhaave at Leiden or the Monros at Edinburgh The essays show how increasing levels of wealth allowed more and more students to make their pilgrimages travelling for weeks at a time to sit at the feet of a particular master In medicine this meant that over the period c 1500 to 1789 a succession of universities became the medical school of choice for ambitious students Padua and Bologna in the 1500s Paris Leiden and Montpellier in the 1600s and Leiden G ttingen and Edinburgh in the 1700s The arrival of foreign students brought wealth to the university towns and this significant economic benefit meant that the governors of these universities tried to ensure the defence of freedom of religion and freedom of speech thus providing the best conditions for the promotion of new views and innovation in medicine The collection presents a new take on the history of medical education as well as universities travel and education more widely in ancien r gime Europe

Cultural Mediators Annette de Vries, 2008 The notion of cultural mediation is a promising albeit not yet methodologically clear cut and well probed instrument for studying artistic and literary phenomena in the Late Medieval and Early Modern Period This volume addresses the role of artists and writers as cultural mediators in a variety of cultural fields such as religion politics morality and artistic expression art literature and theatre It fully acknowledges the diversity of roles that the term cultural mediator incorporates The artist or writer may be a neutral transmitter a dedicated instructor a conscious advocate an unconscious exponent or an autonomous inventor of whatever message is being transmitted by way of visual or verbal artefacts In reality these roles were often intertwined but distinguishing them enables us to recognise the main variables that shaped the role of a cultural mediator the intentionality of the artist or writer the function of his or her work and its reception by the viewers or audience The essays collected in this volume offer a stimulating interdisciplinary exploration of the range variety and impact of the artist or writer as a cultural mediator while avoiding a deadlock between notions of art and literature as subsidiary versus self contained fields of creative expression Uittreksels uit de opera omnia van Petrus Forestus, betreffende Delft, Delvenaars, Delftsche toestanden, enz., loopende over de jaren 1558-1596 Jan Soutendam, 1889 Humanistica Lovaniensia, 1997 The History of Urology Leonard J.
