Reddit Venmo Latest:

New Money Lana Swartz, 2020-05-01 A new vision of money as a communication technology that creates and sustains invisible often exclusive communities One of the basic structures of everyday life money is at its core a communication media Payment systems cash card app or Bitcoin are informational and symbolic tools that integrate us into or exclude us from the society that surrounds us Examining the social politics of financial technologies Lana Swartz reveals what's at stake when we pay This accessible and insightful analysis comes at a moment of disruption from fin tech startups to cryptocurrency schemes a variety of technologies are poised to unseat traditional financial infrastructures Swartz explains these changes traces their longer histories and demonstrates their consequences Getting paid and paying determines whether or not you can put food on the table She shows just how important these invisible systems are The data that payment produces is uniquely revelatory and newly valuable New forms of money create new forms of identity new forms of community and new forms of power

The Shape of Wonder Alan Lightman, Martin Rees, 2025-09-02 In this captivating insightful book acclaimed physicists Alan Lightman and Martin Rees illuminate the life and work of numerous scientists in order to demystify the scientific process and show that scientists are concerned citizens just like the rest of us Remarkable Illuminating with refreshing clarity the ordinary and sometimes extraordinary work of scientists This book is essential reading Jennifer Ackerman bestselling author of What an Owl Knows In an age of rapid scientific discovery and technological advancement it's understandable that many feel uneasy about the future While we might have confidence in these new developments when we go to the hospital for a medical procedure fly in an airplane or take an elevator to the top floor of a building the motivations and lives of scientists themselves feel shrouded from public view There is a growing sense that scientists are not to be trusted that they may be guided by political or financial interests or beholden to governments or state institutions This growing mistrust of scientists is an urgent problem With the onset of climate change the imminent threats of pandemic or nuclear war and rapid acceleration in the fields of artificial intelligence and DNA sequencing innovations in science have the potential to change the world It's crucial that we not only gain a better understanding of science as a field but also reestablish trust with its practitioners The Shape of Wonder guides us through the fascinating lives and minds of scientists around the world and throughout time from a young theoretical physicist who works as a research assistant professor at the University of Washington and rock climbs in their free time to German physicist Werner Heisenberg in his early life when he was a student of music and philosophy to Govind Swarup an Indian astronomer whose work on radio telescopes was profoundly important We get an inside peek at what makes scientists tick their daily lives passions and concerns about the societies they live in In this brilliant and elucidative work Lightman and Rees pull back the curtain on the field of science revealing that scientists are driven by the same sense of curiosity wonder and responsibility towards the future that shapes us all

Fintech Wars James da Costa, 2024-10-03 Fintech touches every part of our lives from cashless economies to crypto

and even our climate This book draws back the curtain on this fascinating world full of friction failure and fortune Fintech Wars delves into one of the world's most lucrative and fast growing sectors Witness the bold strategies groundbreaking innovations and relentless drive that propelled fintech unicorns like PayPal Nubank and Monzo to transform the world Featuring interviews with generational founders including Reid Hoffman LinkedIn Nigel Morris Capital One and Martha Lane Fox Lastminute.com the narrators of this book have built companies that represent over one trillion dollars in market capitalization As the founder of a digital bank James da Costa is a fintech insider He draws upon his network and first hand experiences to offer a fascinating look into the intricacies and motivations behind building billion dollar disruptors Step into the fascinating unpredictable and inspiring world of fintech

Permanent Distortion Nomi Prins, 2022-10-11 A riveting exposé of a permanent financial dystopia its causes and real world consequences It is abundantly clear that our world is divided into two very different economies The real one for the average worker is based on productivity and results It behaves according to traditional rules of money and economics The other doesn't It is the product of years of loose money poured by central banks into a system dominated by financial titans It is powerful enough to send stock markets higher even in the face of a global pandemic and threats of nuclear war This parting from reality has its roots in an emergency response to the financial crisis of 2008 Quantitative Easing injected a vast amount of cash into the economy especially if you were a major Wall Street bank What began as a short term dependency became a habit then a compulsion and finally an addiction Nomi Prins relentlessly exposes a world fractured by policies crafted by the largest financial institutions led by the Federal Reserve that have supercharged the financial system while selling out regular citizens and leading to social and political reckonings She uncovers a newly polarized world of the mega rich versus the never rich the winners and losers of an unprecedented distortion that can never return to normal

Sex Work on Campus Terah J. Stewart, 2022-05-17 Sex Work On Campus examines the experiences of college students engaged in sex work and sparks dialogue about the ways educators might develop a deeper appreciation for and praxis of equity and justice on campus Analyzing a study conducted with seven college student sex workers the book focuses on sex work histories student motivations and how power or lack thereof associated with social identity shape experiences of student sex work It examines what these students learn because of sex work and what college and university leaders can do to support them These findings are combined in tandem with analysis of current research popular culture sex work rights movements and exploration of legal contexts This fresh and important writing is suitable for students and scholars in sexuality studies gender studies sociology and education
