

Study Guide for My Name Is Parvana

Note: Be sure to check all websites listed in this Study Guide to ensure suitability for your class.

Getting Started

- Have students each research two facts about Afghanistan (e.g., languages, religion, population, area, capital, life expectancy, literacy rate, monetary unit, flag, geographical features, climate, historical information, art, architecture, music, media). Have volunteers compile the information for a “Quick Facts” sheet or a bulletin board display.
- Read the Author’s Note (pages 199–201) for background information and context.
- Provide information about the author, Deborah Ellis, from online interviews, videos and the “About the Author” section on the last page of My Name Is Parvana.
- Display a series of maps of Afghanistan and have students consider its geographical features such as its landlocked situation, bodies of water, regions, major cities and bordering countries. Have them discuss the effects of these features on the people who live there. Have them also figure out where it is relative to your latitudinal location, and its size compared with your province or state.
- Have students view photo essays or other collections of photographs of Afghanistan and have them discuss their responses with a partner or small group.
- If students have not read the three other books in the series, explain that My Name Is Parvana is a sequel to three previous books set in Afghanistan that feature Parvana and her friend Shauzia. Read students the synopses of The Breadwinner, Parvana’s Journey and Mud City, found on their back covers.

Questions for Discussion/Writing

Chapter One

1. What is the setting in this chapter? How does the author let the reader know about the setting and the characters without stating the information directly? Find all the details that inform the reader.
2. Why has Parvana been placed in this prison?

Have students begin a character profile of Parvana, or add to it if they have already created one for The Breadwinner or Parvana’s Journey. Explain that many of the characters who will appear in this book also appear in other books in the series: The Breadwinner, Parvana’s Journey and Mud City. Students can begin or add to their character profiles throughout the entire series.

My Name Is Parvana Study Guide:

My Name Is Parvana Deborah Ellis, 2014-06-05 She heard the woman's boots walk away down the hall She stood and waited listening hard to see if the boots would come back When she was sure she was alone the girl finally spoke Yes she whispered My name is Parvana Fifteen year old Parvana has built a new life with her family and it's the life she's always dreamt of She's learning in a real school and teaching too But this is Afghanistan and the war is far from over Many still view the education and freedom of women with suspicion and fear And that means Parvana and her family are in danger When she's taken away by American soldiers suspected of being a terrorist Parvana must find a way to protect her family and keep her hope alive
